PRESENTATION

WE, the staff of the "Taleoken," have tried to make this book a record of our school life and a treasure chest of fond memories. In it we have included athletics, classes, and clubs as well as other activities of our school. So that, if in the future, one should chance to open his treasure chest, he can take out of it a gleaming golden chain, a golden chain of memories which will bind him forever to his school.

DEDICATION

TO a man of the highest character, who has done much to raise our school to its present high standards, who has followed the modest modern trends in education, and who above all has been a friend of the students, we, the Class of 1935, with sincere admiration and respect, dedicate this second annual edition of the "Taleoken" to Mr. E. T. Chapman.

Acknowledgments

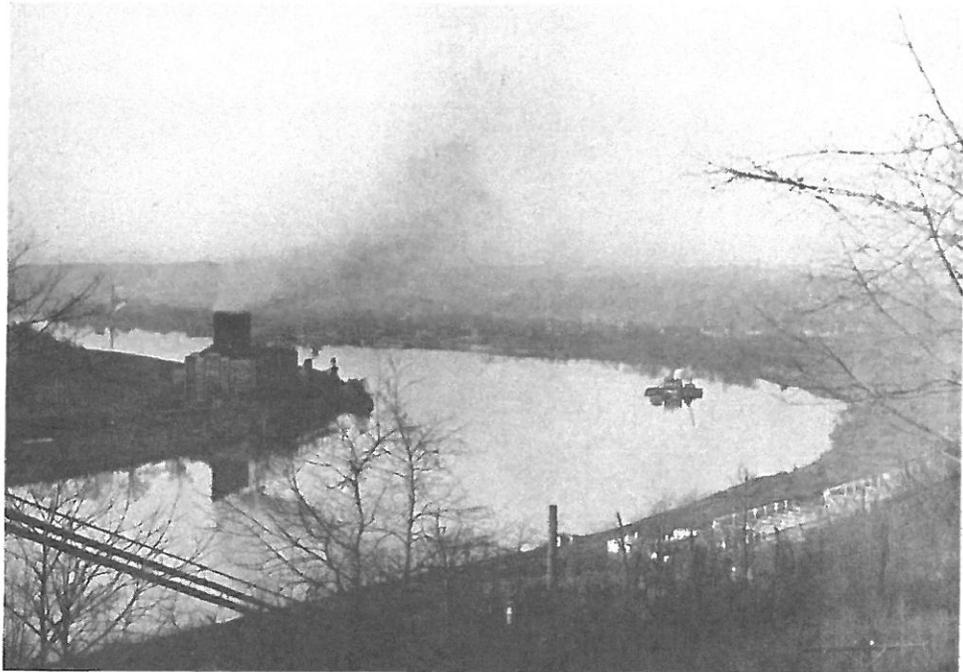

"Honor to whom honor is due" is a motto which the editor, in these few lines, is striving to uphold. Never before in the history of year books, we dare say, has less credit been due to any one person and so much credit due to so many persons. It is impossible to mention by name all the friends whose cooperation and contributions have made possible this book.

Outside the staff, we wish to mention Mr. Artman whose advice and help as financial advisor have been indispensable; Miss Walker, who has acted as editorial advisor; Mr. Wise, representative of Jahn and Ollier, for his interest in planning this book as well as for his continued help in seeing the plans carried out; Mr. Ben Strauch for practically all the pictures; the Berlin Press for their excellent work. Miss Taylor has very materially aided us by managing the sale of candy. Miss Barranco and a number of her typing students, particularly Jean Burley, Kathryn Connor, and Ruth Fair have typed much of our material. The senior English teachers have acted as judges in selecting the class poem. The section room teachers and club sponsors have co-operated with us at all times. Representatives of the classes and of the clubs, several members of the Kentonian Staff, and the Junior Staff are responsible for the various write-ups. Without the interest and support of the entire student body, this book would have been impossible.

Finally, we wish to take this opportunity to thank our advertisers for their part in the publication of the "Tale-oken." They have shown their faith in us by advertising in our year book; let us show our appreciation by patronizing them.

The Allegheny River, as seen from Coxcomb Hill, is a commercial waterway whose banks are lined with great industrial plants. How different from the picturesque Allegheny, then an Indian highway, explored by Washington! And how well its change from that time to this portrays the industrial growth of our community!

ADMINISTRATION

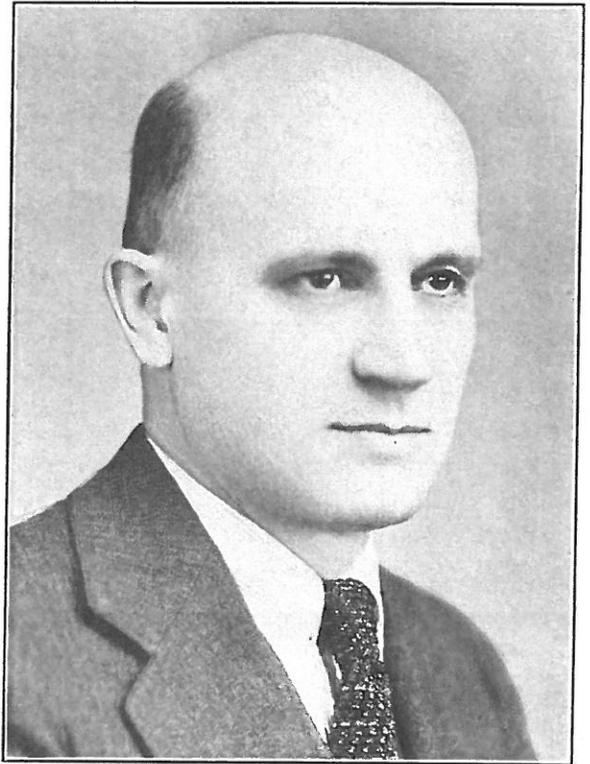

To the Class of 1935:

Congratulations on completing your high school course. You are the largest class in the history of the High School. Your record in school is good. May you prove your worth to the community after you have left school. You will find that hard work is as essential to success after commencement as it has been in school.

Sincerely yours,

E. T. CHAPMAN
Superintendent of Schools.

To the Class of 1935:

Four years in Ken Hi! There will never be another four years like them—years of study, play, and fun. Four years to make friendships and to dream dreams. May this 1935 “TALEOKEN” be a storehouse of memories of the days you spent at Ken Hi.

Alma Mater

Dear Old Ken Hi,
Dear Old Ken Hi,

The school we back with love and loyalty,

We'll honor you
Our whole life through,
Dear Alma Mater, Ken Hi.

Symbolic of the ideals of science and civilization, this modern research laboratory is one of the most beautiful buildings in New Kensington. Like an employee of the Aluminum Company, "science, which created to-day's common uses of aluminum yesterday, is creating to-morrow's common uses to-day."

CLASSICAL

Varsity Football (2), (3), (4); Varsity Basketball (3), (4); Treasurer (4).

Trzeciak, a graduate of Parnassus Junior High, is recognized as one of the finest athletes in western Pennsylvania, having been chosen all W. P. I. A. L. class AA quarterback at the close of the football season. Beside this, his sunny nature and ready smile have won him a host of friends.

ROBERT W. WILSON

Bob

President
CLASSICAL

Varsity Basketball (3), (4); President of Hi-Y (4); Board of Activities (2), (3), (4); President (3), (4).

In athletics as well as in other phases of school life, Bob Wilson is outstanding. The students' feelings are summed up in one remark by a classmate, "I would stand up and cheer for Bob anytime."

JOSEPH R. ROSS

Moe

Vice President
CLASSICAL

Varsity Football (2), (3), (4); Varsity Basketball (2), (3), (4); Vice President (4).

Having graduated from Parnassus Junior High, Joe came to Ken Hi and here became one of the outstanding athletes in the history of the school. He is friendly, good-natured, and popular with his schoolmates.

In Memoriam

JOSEPH SCHAFER
Died November 3, 1934

"So many worlds, so much to do,
So little done, such things to be,
How know I what had need of thee,
For thou wert strong as thou wert true?"

—Tennyson

Seniors

The dawn has come and the sun is nigh
The gleam of the future promises day;
A challenge-laden wind passes by
As we seniors pause to choose our way.

Our school days lie behind in the night
With the books and classes we've had,
And we Seniors find we are not right
When we say we are sorry or glad.

A question lurks in each Senior's mind:
"For me what does the world have in store?"

The ideals within us we must find
And all the world-full of work before.

To us the land throws out a light,
A challenge to come, and do and dare;
The fate of the world rests on the might
Of us Seniors who stop and pause, aware!

—Alice Horsfield

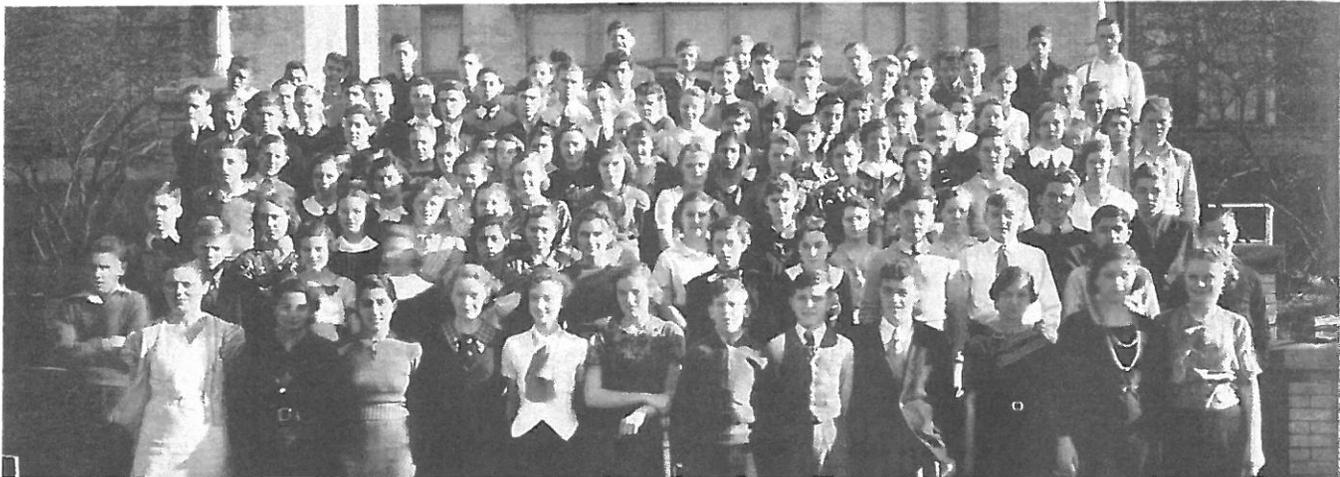

Class Song

TUNE—Cornell University "Alma Mater."

Fare thee well our Alma Mater,
Dear old school we love.
In our hearts thy spirit lingers
There 'twill always live.
We salute thee—dear Old Ken-Hi
And thy glorious name.
May it ever shine and bring thee
Everlasting fame.

The Class of Nineteen Thirty-Six

In the school year of '32 and '33 the two bodies which were eventually to be welded into this year's Junior Class functioned as two separate groups; the Parnassus faction which operated at the old Parnassus High School and the New Kensington group whose activity center was the New Kensington High School.

The first events, therefore, are recorded in the freshman annals of both groups. The New Kensington freshmen sponsored their skate and at the end of the year celebrated with their freshman dance. In the spring of the same year the Parnassus corporation sunk its accumulated finances into the only social event of the year, their private party attended exclusively by the graduating students of the Parnassus Junior High.

In the year 1933 and '34 a merger was arranged combining the freshman classes of New Kensington Junior High and Parnassus Junior High into the sophomore group of the New Kensington High School, and this class sailed smoothly throughout the year. Aply guided by counselors they floated their major issues: the sophomore skate, the tea dance, and a formal dance which terminated their social events of the year.

Now as 1934 and '35 rolls up, we see the same group advanced a year—the present record-breaking junior class which envolved from a bewildered sophomore class of the preceding year. Under proper management this class hopes to increase their finances to such an extent that they may present to the seniors upon graduation the most eagerly anticipated event of the year, the Junior-Senior prom. In preparing for this all important event, the juniors have sponsored the Masque Ball and have brought to the school for the enjoyment of the students an interesting and mystifying magician who performed his tricks of magic in the gymnasium.

The Class of Nineteen Thirty-Seven

A fitting crown for the Sophomore Class would shine with accomplishment and glow with fellowship. Ours has indeed been a varied and successful career. We have been complex in daily life and compound in deeds.

As seventh graders we were humble, dazed, and bewildered. Finally becoming acquainted, we found our place as the future class of 1937. Our education was helped along in seventh grade by Music Clubs under the sponsorship of Miss Cost.

The eighth grade found us elevated one step in the ladder of learning. Again extra-curricular activities were enjoyed by us and notable deeds were done. Commencement exercises were marked by the awarding of American Legion medals.

When September of 1933 came, we were enrolled as freshmen. Under expert direction and with willing helpers, we made notable the skate and St.

Patrick's Day Dance. Also as freshmen we were permitted a wider range of clubs. In the field of athletics we were not backward, for the Junior High School basketball squad ended a good season in second place.

The end of the year was made most enjoyable by our Commencement program. The speakers and soloists held us fascinated, and of course the awarding of diplomas pleased us most.

The prosperity just around the corner for hard workers was realized by the sophomores in the fall of 1934. A new set of activities in clubs was enjoyed and more students than ever before took part in them.

With our "New Deal" dealt we realized success in dance and skate. Our Sophomore Hop was especially enjoyed by the students. We have at last established ourselves and look to the future with courage.

Even though the "Freshies" do come last, you know you must include them. No, you can't leave them out, for who would be publishing a "Taleo-ken" in 1938 if there were no freshmen now? They began their history as a class group on September 5, 1934. It was on that day that exactly two hundred fifty-eight "little men and little women" filed into 401. Soon everybody was acquainted and elections were held.

These same "little people" were those who during their seventh and eighth years made themselves renowned. In the seventh year the Health Contest closed with one of their own "little women," Patricia Henderson, and one of their "little men,"

Jimmy Kerr, as the winners. They chose as their most popular girl and boy, Betty Williams and Jimmy Kerr. Then came the American Legion awards, distinctions which went to Myrtle Clee and Richard Freeman.

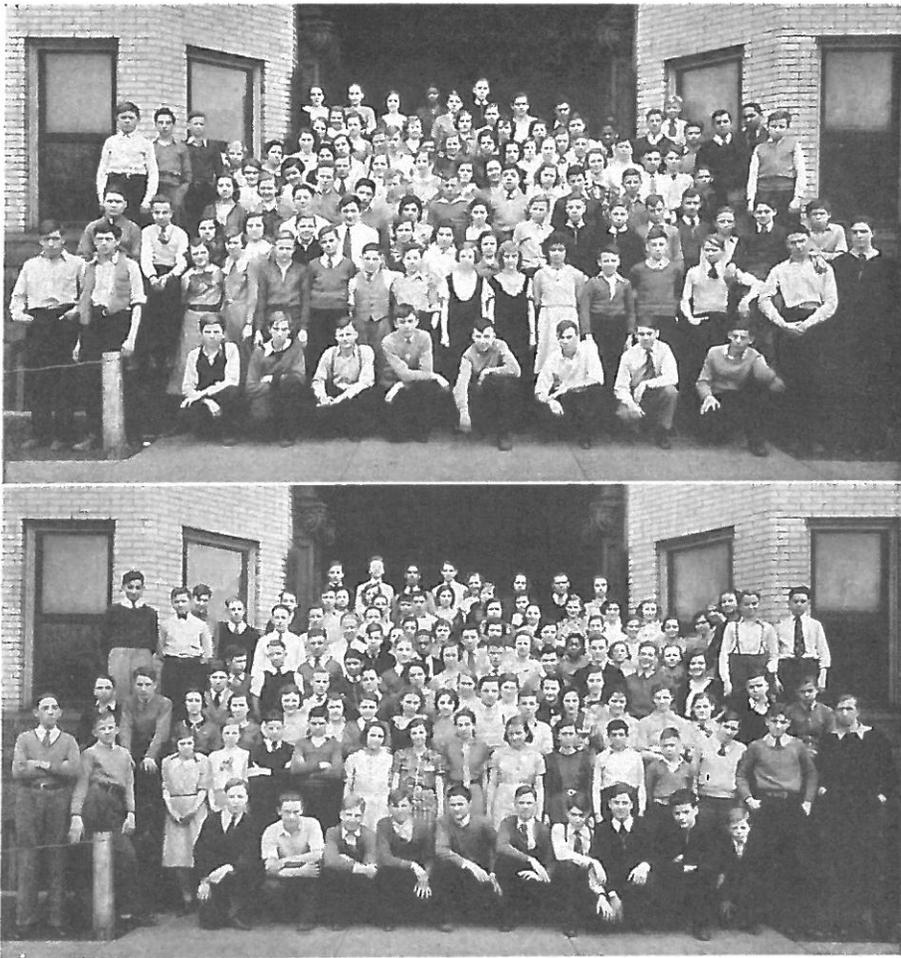

The Civics Club, the best known of the "Freshie" Clubs, was organized in September and became a popular rendezvous for A and B Civics students. In April the club held its biggest event, a tea dance. All had a good time and enjoyed some good home-made candy.

On March 15 the freshmen held their class dance, better known as the annual St. Patrick's Day Dance which was one of the outstanding events of the year.

During the present school term—the fourth term of the existence of the Parnassus Junior High School, the Main Street building houses 657 students. Of this number 231 are freshmen. Aside from New Kensington proper, there are students from Plum and Upper Burrell townships who receive their ninth year of schooling in our building.

Parnassus Junior High School has a faculty of twenty, headed by Principal O. W. Johnson; the courses taught by these teachers are academic, commercial, and general.

Special opportunities are given in shop work, art, music, and home economics.

In the way of clubs, Parnassus Junior High offers:

General Science, Home Economics, Journalism, and Junior Hi-Y.

The Junior Patrol consists of twelve active, alert boys who are at their posts, rain or shine.

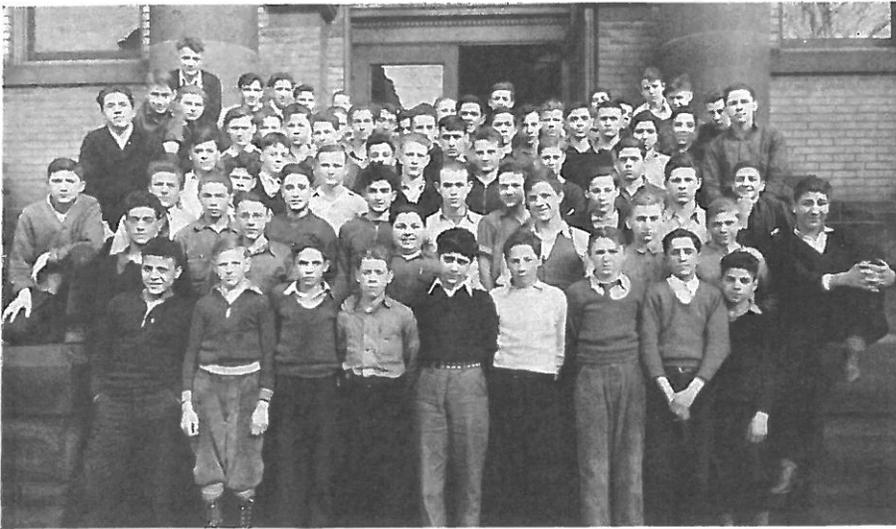

Parnassus Junior High is the only school in the city of New Kensington which has a regular weekly assembly period. Programs are presented by the various home rooms under the guidance of the teachers.

Commencement occupies a prominent place in the school program. This year the usual Spring Dance will be held, while the commencement program will be in commemoration of the 300th anniversary of the founding of secondary schools.

Vocational School

During the year 1934-35 the enrollment of Trade School reported an attendance of 55 freshmen, distributed throughout the three courses: machine shop practice, patternmaking, and drafting. About one-half of their school hours are spent in shop practice, in which they seek experience in their line of trade; while the remainder of the time is given to theoretical and related subjects in the class room. As the freshmen advance from the primary steps in shop or drafting practice, they are promoted to the second year which is the junior year.

Here the training is a little more difficult and includes a wider scope. In the shop science class, various experiments are conducted with different kinds of metals, motions, and energies. A variety of gearing problems such as compound and simple gearing are solved through practical experience in the shop. Several experiments have been conducted pertaining to aluminum. The students have discovered the different reactions that salt, acid, and soapy water have upon aluminum. By such training throughout the year, the students enter their final period of school work.

In the final year of school, the students receive much valuable information pertaining to our American industries.

Several interesting projects have been carried out by the Trade School student body. The drafting department has completed a number of drawings and blueprints, from which the senior patternmakers have constructed patterns and prepared them for the foundry to have castings made. Later, these castings are returned to our machine shop to be machined and made into jigsaws, band saws, rip-saws, vises, and various other complicated machines and tools.

One of the most interesting projects which has been made by the senior machinists is a farm tractor which will be used to pull farm machinery. Every part which has gone into the construction of this piece of machinery has been bought at various second hand stores and machined in Trade School to the dimensions required. About six months have been required before a success has been made on the four cylinder gasoline engine which develops approximately twenty horse power. This tractor has a wheel base of about sixty-six inches, a wheel tread of thirty inches, and stands about three and one half feet high.

Vocational education is of fundamental importance in decreasing the supply of unskilled labor. Its great service is that it trains individuals away from over crowded and hence poorly paid jobs and toward those positions in which men are scarce, and hence highly paid.

YOUR SCHOOL

If you think your school's the best
Tell 'em so
If you'd have it lead the rest
Help it grow.
When there's anything to do
You'll feel bully when it's through
Don't you know.
If you're used to giving knocks
Change your style
Throw bouquets instead of rocks
For awhile.
Let the other fellow roast
Shun him as you would a ghost
Meet his hammer with a boast
And a smile.
To all strangers from afar
Who come along
Tell them who and what we are—
Make it strong.
Needn't flatter, never bluff
Tell the truth, for that's enough
Join the boosters—they're the stuff
We belong.

Familiar to all are the reflections in the river of the lights of the Aluminum Company plant. In these buildings are made the famous Wear-Ever cooking utensils. Besides aluminum, New Kensington's products include glass, tin plate, white lead, freight cars and springs for railroad cars.

Putting Ken Hi's news in black and white is the purpose of the "Kentonian" the weekly school paper. Who, when, where, what, and why are the five W's the paper tries to answer in regard to the activities of New Kensington High School, Parnassus Junior High School and Trade School.

Plain facts with absolutely no personal opinion involved are contained on the first page. Editorial comments and the "Week on the Avenue" are the "pep" givers to the second page. Book reviews are published for the purpose of training a desire for reading substantial literature. Through an exchange column, Ken Hi is kept in constant "touch" with the activities of neighboring schools. The best of student themes and poetry attempts are also published on this page of personal expression. Main Street Junior High School news lends a Parnassus atmosphere to the third page. Its gigantic honor rolls and its column "of spice and everything nice" are dominating. Sports, including pre-game writeups, commentaries, and Trade School news are found on the fourth and last page of the "Kentonian."

As the "Kentonian" of 1934-35 is the fourteenth annual issue of the paper, the present staff has tried to uphold the high standards set in previous years.

Whose duty is it to make out Ken Hi's social calendar? Who approves all class and club activities? This is just part of the work of the senior, junior, and sophomore class representatives together with the faculty members who constitute the Board of Activities. Twice monthly the Board meets to consider business under its jurisdiction.

Beside its regular duties the past year, the Board sponsored the first tea dance for the purpose of earning money to supply music for the tea dance orchestra, better known as the Craven-Manganelli Orchestra. However, the main social activity of this organization is the annual banquet at which all school organizations are represented. The purpose of this banquet is to bring the various clubs in closer contact with each other. This year the banquet was held in December.

Sophomore representatives, a boy and a girl, are elected at the beginning of every school term. These students represent their class for the remaining three years of their high school days.

This is the tenth anniversary of the New Kensington chapter of the National Honor Society, the charter having been granted on January 21, 1925.

The highest honor attainable in Ken Hi is membership in the National Honor Society. Admission to this society is not only the highest but the most difficult to attain. Membership is based upon scholarship, leadership, service, and character—the four leading qualities of education. The object of this society is to encourage and develop these qualities throughout the school. These high standards of the organization must be maintained by every member, or he is dropped and his National Honor Society emblem is returned to the local chapter.

Some of the activities of this club are a chapel program, a tea dance, a private dance, and a theater party in Pittsburgh. Also, it has been the custom for a number of years for the Honor Society to give awards, at the end of the year, to the best boy and girl citizens in the senior class. One can see from this that the National Honor Society is active along the educational line.

Put together about fifty lively girls from Ken Hi who are creating, maintaining, and extending throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character and you have the Tri-Hi-Y. Since 1929 the Tri-Hi-Y has been one of the most active clubs in Ken Hi. This organization is a chapter of a national organization and it includes those junior and senior girls, excelling in character and having a desirable scholastic rating, who are elected into the club at several intervals during the term.

Some of the social activities featured on the Tri-Hi-Y's 1934-35 calendar have been a Harvest Ball in November, a faculty tea in February, a tea dance in March, a Mother and Daughter banquet in the spring, and swimming parties once every month at the local Y. M. C. A.

As well as the social activities which the Tri-Hi-Y sponsors, it endeavors to carry out civic and religious activities. The distribution of baskets to needy families at Christmas time is the principal activity of this sort.

During the basketball season, the girls of the club have been backed by the entire student body and faculty in their campaign for better sportsmanship. Posters in the halls and in the gymnasium and speeches in section rooms have reminded students of the part they should play at any game.

The Hi-Y is a nation-wide organization of which New Kensington is a chapter. This chapter was organized in 1928 and reorganized in 1932 under the sponsorship of Mr. Hadden.

Regular meetings are held twice a month, in which are discussed topics of benefit to all the members. Meetings are led by members, by Mr. Hadden, and by outsiders chiefly Mr. Seybolt of the Y. M. C. A. Debates, swimming, and ping pong are also features of the meetings. The club has had the gymnasium weekly for athletic purposes. They have had a basketball team which has played teams about town and teams composed of other members. They also have had a volley-ball team which has played among themselves and against the teachers.

The club's slogan is "Clean Living, Clean Sports, Clean Speech, and Better Comradeship."

Many socials have been sponsored by the club during the year. Plans have been made for a private dance, a tea dance, and an annual tour of Pittsburgh. Special activities have been: Keep fit week, co-sponsor of victrola record campaign, assisting all high school activities, and the publication of a weekly live-wire paper, in which all members have taken part.

During the week of initiation each new member is required to carry a paddle of specified dimensions and to wear a baby doll with red and white ribbon on it to signify that he is a neophite in the Hi-Y. He also has to do anything the old members say or take the penalty.

Le Cercle Francais

Le Cercle Francais, an active organization at Ken Hi since 1929, has enjoyed a successful year. During 1934-1935, eighty students have been enrolled in the club.

The French Club was organized for the purpose of creating a greater interest in the language, customs, and people, and thus broaden the students' knowledge of France. These aims were attained through many interesting programs presented at the monthly meetings. Several little French plays not only were entertaining and instructive but also revealed the student's ability to express himself in the French language. At Christmas time the program contained favorite carols, sung in French; a comparison of the season's customs and legends; and the historical composition of carols of many lands. The study of provinces was made real by the costumed folk dancers of Normandy and sturdy sailors singing a song of old Brittany. At the January meeting, Mr.

Eugene Chapman, a student at Wooster College, told about his travels through France last summer. As he related his interesting experiences aided by maps, snapshots and pictures, the club journeyed with him in imagination from the impressive towers of St. Michel to the modest home of his little French girl.

Many students in the club have begun correspondence with students in France and Belgium. These letters, written by enthusiastic boys and girls who are also anxious to learn of our country, reveal the vast differences in our school life and social activities.

The Tea Dance in March was the outstanding social function of the year. The members will not forget "the candy-making" with their blistered fingers and exhausted patience in their efforts to satisfy the candy-lovers at Ken Hi and to make the dance a financial success. The club year of activity closed with the annual picnic in May at Memorial Park.

Busy and productive would be the adjectives to describe the past year for the Dramatic Club.

Each month at the regular social meetings a one-act play was given by this organization for the benefit of the members. Such plays as "Enter the Hero" by Theresa Helburn, "Dress Reversal" by John Gerber, "It's a Gift" by Richard Melville, "The Ghost Story" by Booth Tarkington, and "The Florist Shop" by Winifred Hawkrige were produced under student direction for these meetings.

Outside speakers, talks on lighting effects, make-up, directing, and acting were featured at the monthly business meetings.

For the first time in the history of the Dramatic Club a three-act play, "The Tin Hero" by Charles George, was given at the Parnassus Junior High School for the public. The purpose was to raise money for the club to join the National Thespians for High Schools. As a result, a number of members met the requirements to belong to this honorary dramatic association.

By helping with several assemblies this organization endeavored to show its purpose, "to create and maintain throughout the high school an interest in drama."

Being socially inclined, the club has sponsored three outstanding and successful dances: a tea, a semi-private, and a private.

The Art Club of New Kensington High School is composed of juniors and seniors who show special ability in different fields of art, such as wall paper designing, textile designing, sketching, and portrait study.

This club was founded under the leadership of Mrs. McGarr in 1933. A membership of six has now increased to eighteen.

The finances of the club were materially increased by the sale of Christmas wrapping paper. This paper was made by printing various designs upon tissue paper. It was sold at a very reasonable price to the teachers, to friends of the club members, and to neighbors. The money made was used to buy oil paints for the use of the club.

The club members and Mrs. McGarr considered the club a very worth while organization since many original ideas were presented in the talks at the various meetings. The members considered themselves very fortunate in receiving from the Pittsburgh Studio of Arts a free course in the study of advanced arts.

The social events of the year were a tea dance, a masked ball, and a tea given by the Studio School of Arts.

Treasurer	Robert Pauli

In the fall of 1934, with the passing of the old Nature Study Club, Ken Hi's science and nature lovers saw the need of an organization to take its place; so the newest of Ken Hi organizations, the Concilium Scientiae, was formed.

The purpose of the Concilium Scientiae is to create a fraternal spirit among nature lovers and students interested in science. Candidates are elected to membership on their ability to report and answer questions on some phase of science or nature. These reports, along with plans for hikes and visits to places of scientific interest, are given at the regular meetings each Monday at 3:15. The reports are always on subjects of mutual interest and are afterwards open for discussion.

Under the able guidance of Mr. Walter, instructor in biology, the organization's members have displayed a whole-hearted enthusiasm the first year. This "esprit de corps" is sure to continue and the Concilium Scientiae should soon become one of Ken Hi's leading organizations.

The Students Savings Bank of the New Kensington High School began in 1913. It has grown steadily, and now is the center for all money transactions of each school organization.

This year's staff includes: Mr. Weaver, president; Miss Sleighter, cashier; and Mary Ponzetto, Audrey Roof, Maxine Prager, Anna Wolfe, Betty Truby, Lois Steiner, Elizabeth Peligrinelli, Edith Middleby, Merle Wineland, and Udell Colbert.

Guarding school students, helping in emergencies, and promoting safety are the duties of the patrol which is supervised by William B. Fowler of the police. Patrols are stationed at all schools within the city and can be identified by their badges and belts. Compensation is given in the form of theatrical, skating, and athletic entertainments. Regular meetings, instruction, and special events also are included.

The Commercial Club with its combination of quality and quantity has striven to attain its objective: "To do bigger and better things" in preparing for work in the business world.

The club has one social and one business meeting each month. In these meetings, members have depicted various commercial problems in skits and plays, or prominent speakers have discussed subjects related to commercial work.

The club has also sponsored a tea, a semi-private dance, a benefit show, and a farewell picnic for the seniors.

Orchestra

THE GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

The Girls' Glee Club was originally organized in 1916, but after two or three years existence was dissolved. In 1930 the club was reorganized under the direction of Miss Grace Cost and has continued its work this year under Mr. Gregory's supervision. The club has no officers, but the meetings have been held as class sessions, at which time light classical selections have been studied.

ORCHESTRA

Ken Hi can boast of an orchestra which has completed a very successful year. Although the orchestra has not had the opportunity to prove its musical ability during the first of the year, the commencement activities afford it an excellent opportunity to show the results of Mr. Gregory's directing. The members perform like experienced musicians at the Class Play, Baccalaureate Service, Class Night, and Commencement.

Girls' Glee Club

BAND

Ken Hi has sported a good many new things since last September—new radio, new bulletin board, and even a new coat of paint. Not to be out done, the band fairly swept the school off its feet by appearing in brand new uniforms. Wearing the red and black, they have been on hand at all athletic events to spur the "Flying Dutchmen" on to victory.

LEADERS CLUB

The purpose of the Leaders Club is to promote a greater interest in girls' athletics. To gain membership, any junior or senior girl who excels in gymnastic work is eligible, but she must be a good sport in every sense of the word. In addition to the two Play Days which they have sponsored each year, the senior members assist the physical instructor in gymnasium classes.

The Varsity Club is an organization made up of the football and basketball players who have earned a varsity letter. The aim of the club is to maintain the close fellowship gained either on the football field or on the basketball floor. The social activities include a tea dance and a semi-private dance. The Varsity Club also helps in putting on the annual A. K. Tournament.

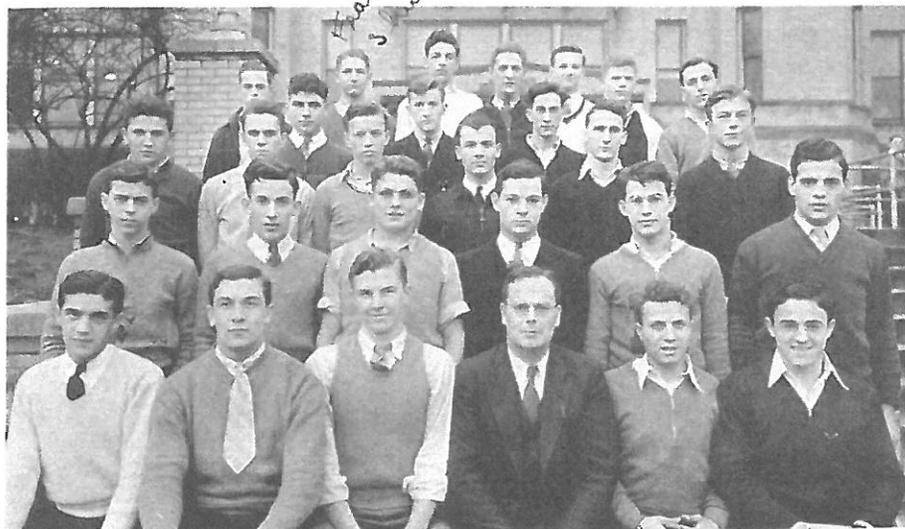

The Civics Club was organized last year and quickly gained a reputation for itself by holding the first Hobby Show ever held in the school. This event, having entries from nearly half the student body, was both novel and highly successful.

At the bimonthly meetings, members enjoy participation in mock trials, dramatizations, reports on civic topics, debates and games. Membership is restricted to freshman civics students.

Miss Bryant, Miss Lyon

The purpose of the Home Economics Club is to create a better social attitude among the girls who take this course. This year the girls have had a Hallowe'en party and a Valentine party. With the profits of their tea dance they are planning a trip to Pittsburgh. Dresses which the girls make during the year are displayed at a fashion show held before the close of school.

The Vocational Hi-Y Club was organized in October, 1934 and has grown both in experience and in numbers. The original fourteen members were initiated by boys of the New Kensington Hi-Y.

Through the courtesy of Mr. Seybolt of the Y. M. C. A., the boys have enjoyed several trips: one through the laboratory of the Aluminum Company, another through the Aluminum Company plants in Arnold and New Kensington.

"The Family Upstairs," a comedy by Harry Delf was selected for the senior play.

The story is written about a domineering yet loving, mother, Mrs. Emma Heller, who tries to marry off her twenty-one year old daughter, Louise. Louise is a pretty, lovely girl but she isn't so popular with the young men. Her mother is afraid she will never get a husband and this is the constant subject for discussion in the family. When a prospect, Charles Grant, appears on the scene, she tries to win him for Louise by bluffing about the family's wealth and social position. Papa

Heller, Brother Willie, and Sister Annabelle do their very best to tear down the lovely illusions that mama builds around the family for Charles' benefit. Louise, who is already secretly engaged to Charles, when she hears about the impressions her mother has been giving, breaks the engagement and plans to leave home. With the help of Willie, Charles sees Louise just in time to prevent her from leaving. He persuades her to become engaged again and then he announces their forthcoming marriage to both his mother and her parents. Louise forgives her mother for the near tragedy, and peace is restored to the Heller household.

The age of electricity is not unmindful of the services of the age of steam as represented by these locomotives of the Pennsylvania Railroad. For many years the railroad, following the course of the Allegheny River, has been an artery of travel and has served to promote the growth of industries up and down the valley.

SCHEDULE—1934

Parnassus	0	Springdale	12
Parnassus	21	Freeport	0
Parnassus	6	Duquesne	0
Parnassus	7	Springdale	6

The Parnassus Junior High football team was fairly well balanced with no particularly outstanding player.

The harmony was splendid; the co-operation, fine. Every boy was a hard worker, and gave his every effort in an unselfish manner.

The short season brought out two big thrills for all interested in the sport. First, the trip to Duquesne and victory over Duquesne Junior High Second; and second, the victory over Springdale in the final game, Springdale being the team which had defeated Parnassus Junior High in the first game of the season.

It is sincerely to be hoped that at least a part, if not all, of the boys make Ken Hi as proud of them as they have made the Junior High School of Parnassus during the football season of 1934.

With another basketball season in history, we are again proud of the record made by the courageous Kenites. Although they were said to be the "underdogs" before many of the games, the record shows twenty victories for the Red and Black, with but three defeats.

The season opened with a series of "warm-up" games, all of which the Red and Black were able to win. They defeated such strong quintets as the Alumni, Ford City, Duquesne, New Castle, and Kiski Preparatory School. These were all hard fought games, but not too hard for the fighting Kenmen.

Of the three sectional defeats handed the Flying Dutchmen this year, the first two were by the strong Arnold team, and the third by Har-Brack. These defeats set Ken Hi in second place in the Section I standing. We must take into consideration the loss of Captain Trzeciak, due to illness, during the latter part of the season.

The Red and Black were crowned the champions of the A. K. V. Tournament, having defeated New Bethlehem, Millvale, Braddock, and Springdale. This was the first time Ken Hi had ever won the A. K. V. Tournament.

The student body of Ken Hi, along with the faculty, certainly appreciate the efforts on the part of Coach Carl Glock in turning out this fine team.

The lettermen are: Captain Trzeciak, Ross, Wilson, Villella, Playfair, Hill, Falloon, and Managers Gray and Monaco.

For the second year of its existence, the Vocational basketball team, coached by Mr. Black of the Trade School faculty, was in need of three players to fill the shoes of those who had graduated. Twenty would-be varsity men answered the call. The first few practice sessions were used to see who had the ability to play. Those who did not show up well after a few trials were dropped, and thus the squad was cut to fifteen members. Then the actual practice was started in earnest. Each candidate showed his best in the daily workouts with the result that a fine team took the floor at the beginning of the season.

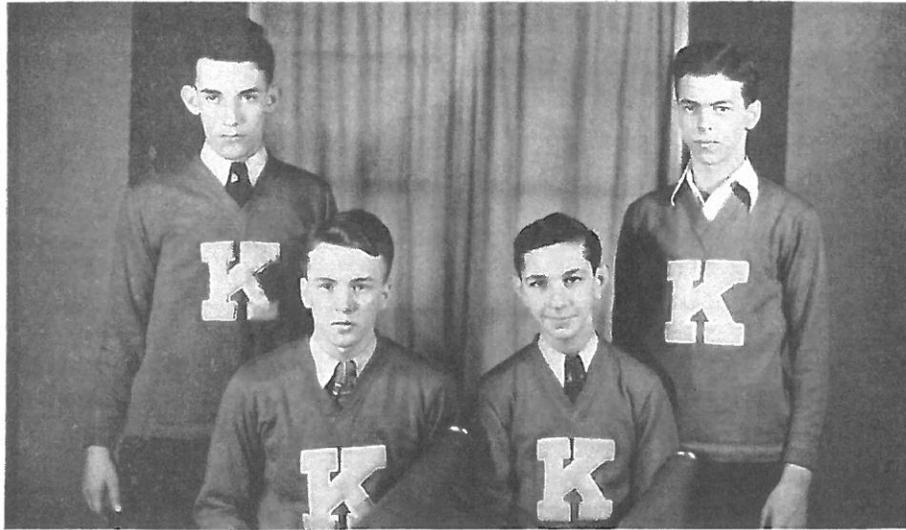

Anticipating a great year, the Vocationalists won their first game. The next nine starts found the "Traders" on the long end, since they won seven out of nine games. The third and last defeat of the season was administered by the Tarentum seniors who had previously been badly beaten by the Vocationalists.

One of the most interesting games played by the "Tradesmen" was against the highly touted Arnold Junior varsity. This game was won in the final minute of play. The remaining games were victories for the Vocational team.

The letter men are: Bellas, Bulibosh, Faldowski, Figorski, Murphy, Abraham, DeLuca, and Kuhns, manager.

Cheer Leaders

Almost as important as the athletic teams themselves are the cheer leaders. These boys have led the hundreds of loyal supporters throughout the season in such popular yells as the "Ken Hi Locomotive," "Fight Team Fight," and "Yea Team, Sock

It To 'em."

As is the usual custom, there are four cheer leaders this year. The two veterans this season are Joe Yingling and "Buz" Endeau while the two newly picked boys are Dick Ames and "Ush" Ernstein.

SCHOOL VICTORY SONG

(TUNE: "Washington and Lee Swing")

When Ken Hi's sturdy men fall into line,
We're going to win again, another time
It's for the dear old school we love so well
It's for the dear old school I yell, I yell, I yell.
So let us fight, fight, fight with all our might,
And not give up 'till this old game is won.
So give the old time pep
SIS! BOOM! BAH!
RAH! RAH! RAH!
Old Ken Hi!

Calendar

SEPTEMBER

4. Back again. The school is still here. 1,756 enrolled.
5. We renew old friendships. Ditto enmities.
6. Al Wolk wears a new purple tie.
12. Edith Roberts and William Alex are elected to Board of Activities.
13. Tri-Hi-Y on the rampage again. Hi-Y still running, especially Bunny Grant.
15. Yells, shouts, cheers, campaign speeches.
16. New Library. John Godfrey gets lost when he goes in because it is so big.
18. Elections. Peace and quiet. Ken Hi gets a rest.
19. Charles Kaiser starts blazing a trail to the bank. Steiner works there now.
20. Tri-Hi-Y returns to Nature. Reason: A weiner roast.
21. How does Bette Beggs remember there is a full moon? And what a nice road there is to Vandergrift?
22. "Dutchmen" whale Schenley 39 to 0. Maybe it is Bettie Krepley's smile and Ralph Fritz's heart that do it.
25. Hi-Y boys recognized with appropriate ceremony after elections.
26. Jack Krupa sports a model T "Shasta." Lois says, "Anything goes."
31. Cafeteria opens. Delicious odors tantalize the 401-ers.

OCTOBER

1. The squad is minus Boyer for Braddock-Ken Hi tussle.
2. Eldred Gray finds a car, a grand hiding place from Hi-Y initiation.
3. High school students have to be told how to cross the streets.
4. French Club meets for the first time to greet each other with a "Bonjour."
5. Mildred Fassett finds that blushing is the sign of youth.
8. Jack Frye and William Thomas sit back and watch the money roll in from the magazine contest.
9. The new pictures cause many comments. The girls agree that Hamlet should be better looking.
10. "Eddie" Bulger is advised to oil his "squeaky shoes" with "3 in 1 oil."
11. Anthony Schleper declares he is going to subscribe for the "Needle Craft" and a quilting magazine.
12. Miss Lyon opposes having her picture taken and finds it produces a blank picture.
13. One of Ken-Hi's many lucky days. Ken-Hi-13—Taylor Alderdice-7.
15. John DeLuca is having little trouble in holding down his position of drum major.
16. The Board of Activities grants senior class permission to start work on the second volume of the "Taleoken."
17. The mirrors in the cloakrooms are becoming quite popular with the new students.
18. The question: If I pay for my ring this week and the order goes out next week, how long will I have to wait for my ring? The answer: ?
19. The toga of the "Taleoken" Business Manager falls on Melvin Bloser.
20. Varsity swamps McKeesport 28-7. Joe Ross makes 18 of the 28 points.
22. Cute little girls carrying eggs and wearing Tri-Hi-Y brands on their foreheads. Are the eggs hard-boiled, girls?

23. Sylvan Ives and Mary Louise Smith start Ken-Hi's social season at the Board of Activities tea dance.
24. A. W. Dittmore, the king of racketeers, impresses the Ken-Hi student body. Some of the high pressure advertisers tell us this: "For only 10¢ you can miss a whole class." What if you have a studyhall?
25. Chester Kosheba and Mike Barkasi plead with reporters to have their names in print.
26. Ken-Hi students are waylaid on the way to Monessen's night game.
29. The campaign for victrola records is in full swing. Ben Beacom brings a pile and exclaims, "May they rest in peace not in pieces."
30. Juniors act as hosts to the student body at the Junior Masque.
31. Calendar man asleep at the switch.

NOVEMBER

1. Mr. Lenox, acknowledged Ken-Hi "he" man, gives a very interesting talk on the game of football to the Tri-Hi-Y females of the species.
2. Mr. Dattola plays host to Bill Fowler's Junior Patrol boys as they see "The Count of Monte Cristo."
3. Hi-Y boys eat Tri-Hi-Y girls' apples.
4. Vincent Straub has the blues; he couldn't get a lift out in the country.
5. Josepha Waters gives a stirring P. O. D. report in Miss Moore's third period class.
6. William Palmer pantomiming in public speaking class creates a sensation.
7. Louis Cappretti receives his one hundred and sixtieth middle name.
8. Tri-Hi-Y girls play hosts at the first semi-private dance.
9. Safety Assembly goes over in a big way as the Dramatic Club adds the humorous element.
10. Royed Diana talks to Mr. Gantz's P. O. D. classes.

27. Commercial Club holds another social meeting. Craven-Manganelli orchestra furnishes music.
28. Mr. Artman whistling as he walks down the hall. First sign of spring.
29. What can one do on a day that isn't?

MARCH

1. Year Book dance is said by many to be the best dance of the year.
4. Verne Parson goes in for scrubbing the gym floor in a big way.
5. The "excuse of the week club." I was at the tournament last night.
6. Mr. Sisley plays philanthropist and passes out ice cream to the ticket sellers and ushers at the tournament.
7. Tournament, tournament, and more tournament.
8. The same.
9. The A. K. Conference trophy comes home to roost. Ho-hum, what a week!
See you Monday.
11. Who won that tournament? Anyway, the girls are wearing new gold basketballs.
12. Those "Frenchies" of ours sure can make candy. They should have candy festivals rather than tea dances.
13. N. H. Society members are called up and called down for not having their lessons to-day. Why? They traveled to Pittsburgh last night.
14. Seniors are busy writing class poems.
15. It certainly is a "Freshie" dance all right. Very few besides "Freshies" in fact.
18. Dr. Grafflin stirs Ken-Hi by his "Six Point Living in a Three Way World" address.
19. Al Wolk proves himself a real hero by shining in the leading role of "The Tin Hero."
20. Dot Kunkle and Ruth Holmes return to their childhood and borrow a jumping rope from a 3rd Ward student.

22. Second day of spring. More spring fever.
25. Joe Johnson wears out shoe leather making campaign speeches.

26. Paul Grinder proves himself a real politician by shaking his fist at his audience.
27. We vote. Al Wolk is the hero again—this time as mayor.
28. The Springdale Tri-Hi-Y make their second appearance of the week at Ken-Hi as guests of Ken-Hi's Tri-Hi-Y.
29. The Sophomores and their guests hop in the gym under a huge tent of aluminum.

APRIL

3. Senior play try-outs. "To be or not to be" in the cast.
10. The town has practically perfect government to-day. Ask Norman Whitaker, chief of the Liberal Party advertisement board.
12. Hi-Y Dance.
17. Kentonian staff wakes up. Miss Russell looks for a second O. O. McIntyre.
18. Peace and quiet. The bannisters get a rest.
23. Laverne Hill almost comes in late; his "lift" finger is out of commission.
29. Dick Graham chalks another day off his mental calendar. He claims there is an even dozen left.

MAY

3. National Honor Society Dance.
8. Preparations for the Prom begin. This accounts for the vacant seats in junior classes.
10. Last issue of the Kentonian.
14. Class play.
15. "Smile and tear" day. Good-bye teachers, good-bye books.
21. "Taleoken" staff dinner.
26. Baccalaureate Services in auditorium.
29. Caps and gowns, diplomas, farewells.

Typical of New Kensington's business district is this intersection of Fifth Avenue and Ninth Street. Modern business and office buildings, good streets and well regulated traffic are the rule. New Kensington is the center for shoppers within a twenty mile radius and may be justly proud of its reputation for service and quality.

MEALS -- Three for a Penny

with NATURAL GAS

One cent's worth of Natural Gas, at the rates charged here, will cook a meat dinner for three people; or bake 50 potatoes; or bake 17 one-pound loaves of bread; or bake 16 pies; or roast 5 pounds of beef; or toast 175 slices of bread, both sides.

Scientific tests show that, comparatively, cooking with gas costs: 1-2 as much as cooking with coal, 1-3 as much as cooking with gasoline, 1-4 as much as cooking with electricity, 1-4 as much as cooking with oil.

Figured over a period of years, the pennies saved daily in cooking with gas mount up to hundreds of dollars. Natural Gas is a servant that does much, asks little.
