TALEOKEN

THE 25TH

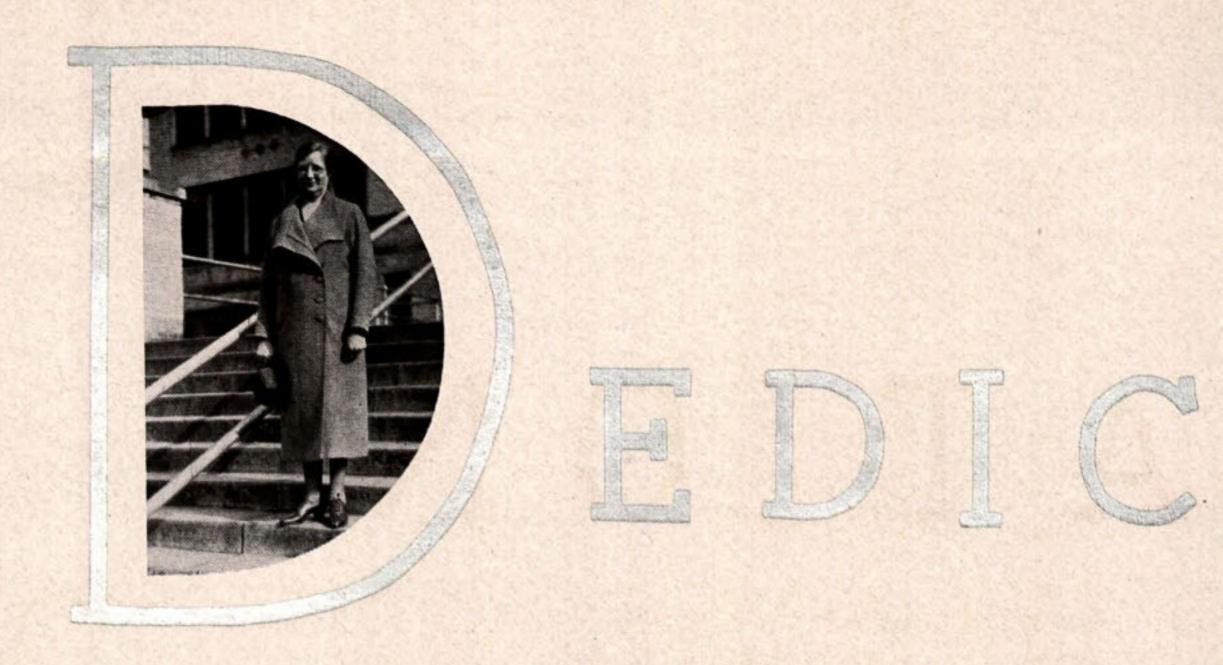

Anniversary

RESENT

SSEMBLIES chatter in the halls frenzied dashes to class numerous steps to 401 ... dances ... cafeteria bustle ... tests ... report cards strains of band music from the gym prom graduation all have been elements in the lives of a great procession of students who for the last twenty-five years have passed in and out of the doors of this building. We, the members of the Taleoken staff, have endeavored by pictorial and verbal portrayal of life in our school to capture the spirit and enthusiasm of our fellow students and in this way make our annual a treasury of memories for all who have attended Ken Hi. We have intended that our yearbook should serve not only as a record of occurrences in Ken Hi in the year nineteen hundred and thirty-eight but as a creation which will constantly refresh the memories of a departed day.

With this hope we take pleasure in presenting to you, on the twenty-fifth anniversary of our building, our edition of the "TALEOKEN"

To Miss Mary O. Watson

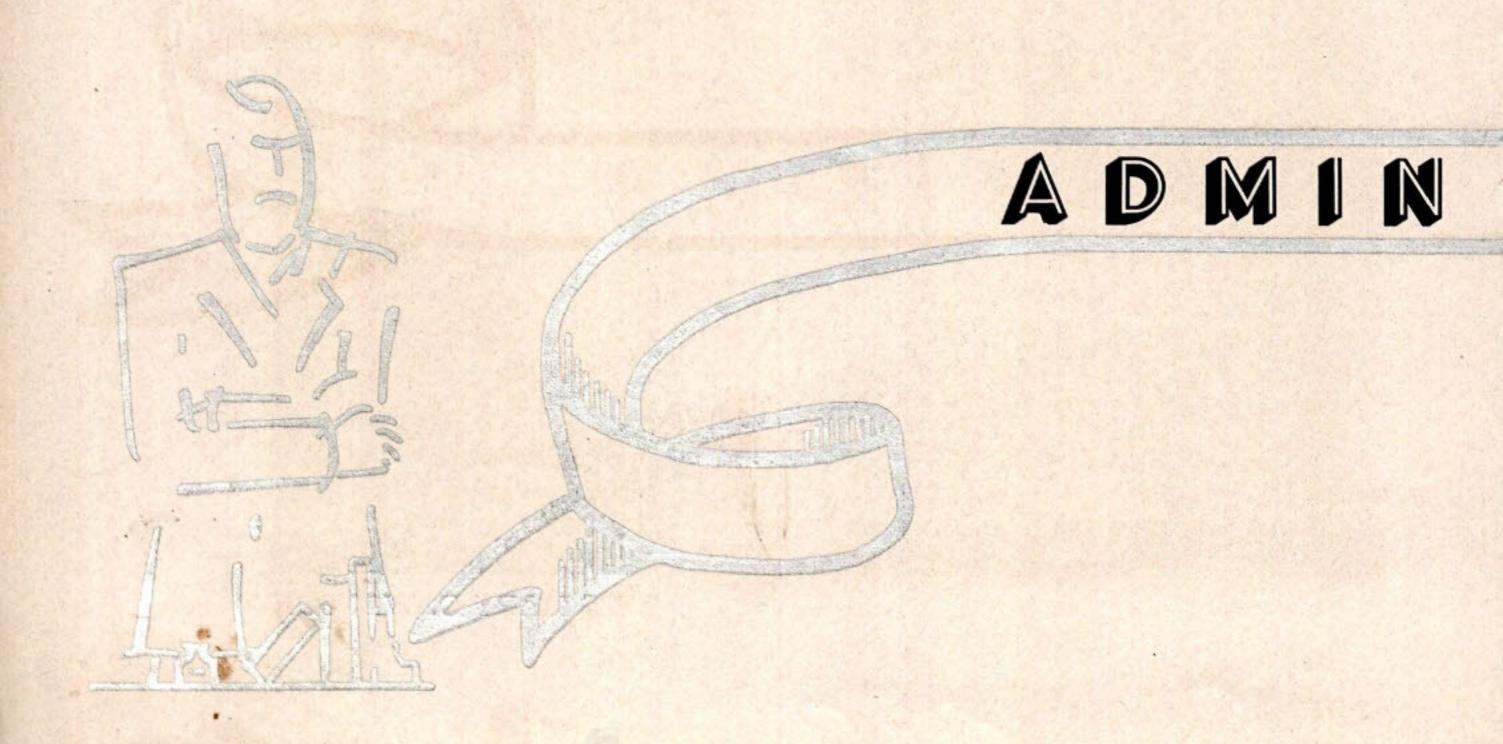

the versatile and dignified lady who has contributed to the development of our characters and personalities, who has been keenly interested in our welfare as students, and who has come in contact with, and been friend and adviser to every student in Ken Hi, the Class of Nineteen Hundred and Thirty-eight, in gratitude and appreciation, dedicates this fifth annual edition of the Taleoken.

ISTRATION

To the Graduating Class of 1938:

You are about to become members of the High School's large group of alumni. Receiving a diploma of graduation not only indicates the confidence of the school in you, but places upon you a responsibility to uphold the good name of the school as you take up your chosen occupation or further pursue your education in higher institutions.

Please accept my best wishes for your future happiness and success.

E. T. CHAPMAN, Superintendent of Schools.

Est Clapum

To the Graduating Class of 1938:

Since the first commencement in 1901 more than 3500 students have been graduated from this school. The distinguished record of these graduates of Ken Hi in numerous fields of service to the state and nation, and to the community in particular, exemplifies the spirit of Ken Hi. Your diploma is an evidence of the confidence of Ken Hi in your ability and willingness to carry on this tradition of leadership and service.

H. B. WEAVER,
Principal of the High School.

To the Class of 1938:

As you cross the Ken Hi threshold for the last time, on your way out into the great adventures of life, may you always remember the lessons and philosophy taught within. I share with the rest of the Board in extending to each of you heartiest congratulations.

S. H. McCRACKEN.

GANIZATIONS

Journalism

The "Taleoken" and the "Kentonian" endeavor to keep students informed of a wide field of school activities

L OOKING back twenty-five years to 1913, one sees the result of the first journalistic effort in Ken Hi. The "Juniclan," a year-book published by the junior class, appeared at this time. Journalism then lapsed in Ken Hi until 1915, when the first issue of the "Kentonian," which adopted a policy of "Our World Exactly as It Goes," appeared. Since the first issue rolled off the presses the paper has been published twenty-five times a school year by the members of the journalism class. Although the "Kentonian" portrayed life as it occurred in Ken Hi, there was no publication which would serve to record in permanent form the the activities of an entire school year until 1934, when the first "Taleoken" appeared. This issue is the fifth of this series.

GOWATY WILL BE FIRST GIRL EDITOR" ran the heading of the main article of the October 15 issue of the "Kentonian," which also revealed that Richard Freeman and Irvin Honick would fill the associate editors' chairs; that the business management would be handled by Ernest Hess and Regina Mazur; that Wayne Shearer and Joe Moran would tackle the advertising difficulties; and that the photography staff, Trueman Fletcher, Don Braden, Ralph Little and William Long, would begin work immediately on the pictures of the seniors.

"Members of the Taleoken staff will, in the future, discuss vital matters in the room adjoining 401, where———" ran the lead sentence of an article appearing in the October 22 number of the "Kentonian." This was the room formerly used as a storage room for the band uniforms, but since the band was allotted space on the first floor, the sponsors, Mr. Artman and Miss Walker, were quick to seize the opportunity of securing the room. Although the room presented a bare appearance, sundry chairs, a rug, table, filing cabinet and various other small articles were added until it presented the appearance of an office.

Immediate use was made of the office when the three editors gathered with the sponsors to fill the remaining positions on the staff. Jane Beacom, Edith Euwer and Ralph Lacey were given the task of finding suitable quotations for the members of the senior class. Mike Gancas and Loa Jane Meyer were detailed to see that every organization received its write-up. The sporting events were to be covered by James Lavery, and to gain an insight into trade school, Edmund Rysz was chosen.

The task of reading the copy written by the other members of the staff was given to Jean Everhart and Jean Cherry, the art work would be handled by Reinald Kozikowski and Merle Hancock, and Ann Burchick and Eva Hasson would preside at the typewriters. Also appointed at this time, to acquaint them with year book work, were Richard Harwick, Louella Jane McConnaughy and Harold Weaver, three members of the junior class.

FACED with a September 21 deadline, Miss Russell, the sponsor of the "Kentonian," was experiencing the difficult task of moulding an efficient news staff from a group of inexperienced writers.

Although she placed Geraldine Easley, Ralph Little and Edward Myers, holdovers from the previous year, in the key positions of editor, news editor and sports editor, the positions of managing editor, assistant news editors, feature editors, advertising manager and circulation manager were yet to be filled. The three editors called a caucus and filled the positions with Irvin Honick, Margaret Grazier, Richard Harwick, Dana Luther, Tom McDade, Robert Conner and Richard Brown.

Since an editorial staff must have news to print, the various reporters' positions were

During the remainder of the year this staff endeavored to use the front page of the paper to keep the student body informed on all major events. Editorial comments, a column written by one Kitty Kenlarney which enabled students to get one up on their neighbors, and a column of vocational news covered the second page. On this page there also appeared at various times exceptionally well written poems and themes. The vast field of athletics consumed the third page, while the fourth page was devoted to Main Street Junior High School. On these two pages also appeared the advertisements of those merchants who used the "Kentonian" as an advertising medium.

Honorary

A brief account of the activities of the Board of Activities, National Honor Society and Varsity Club

THERE are three honorary organizations in Ken Hi: the Board of Activities, the National Honor Society, and the Varsity Club. These organizations are called honorary because they require certain qualifications of their members.

THE Board of Activities has completed its fourteenth year of useful service to our high school. Some of the duties of the board are to consider the eligibility of applicants, to give consideration to all suggestions and proposals made by the representatives or officers of any organization in the school, and to consider applicants for official positions in all of the high school activities.

The first event of the year was a pet show, sponsored by the Board of Activities in cooperation with the class of 1940. The social calendar was then drawn up, which permitted each organization to have social events during the year. On December 2nd the board sponsored "College Night," to which seventeen colleges sent representatives. One hundred and nine students and forty-five parents of the students met these representatives and talked over college requirements. December ninth the annual Board of Activities banquet was held, the entertainment being furnished by Robert Keller, outstanding artist of the KDKA studios. During the year, past minutes of the Board of Activities have been typed and carefully placed in a new binder so that future boards may have access to any minutes they desire.

The members were Mr. Vorlage, president; Mr. Chapman, Mr. Weaver, Miss Watson; Helen Murray, Richard Freeman, seniors; Marie Sabetta, Sam Siciliano, juniors; Betty Morris, Richard Parke, sophomores; Ruth Thomas, secretary.

THE chief purpose of the National Honor Society is to promote better citizenship and to encourage students to become leaders in various organizations. Membership in this society is based on qualities of character, leadership, scholarship, and service.

The first project of the year was the selection of a "big brother" and a "big sister" for each section room. The big brothers and sisters have helped new students to get acquainted in Ken Hi and have promoted a spirit of cheerfulness and co-operation in the class rooms. The outstanding project has been the provision of citizenship prizes of ten dollars each to the best boy citizen and the best girl citizen in the class. The money for this purpose was raised by the sale of candy, pennants, and memorandum pads. The annual tea dance also added to these funds.

The officers for the first semester were Trueman Fletcher, president; William Benzer, vice president; Helen Murray, secretary; Miss Walker, treasurer. The officers for the second semester were Donald Butler, president; Eugene Morton, vice president; Jean Cherry, secretary; Miss Walker, treasurer. Miss Hawk was the sponsor of the club.

Members: Abdo, Banachowski, Baranowski, Beacom, Belli, Bitterice, Burchick, Butler, Cherry, Conner, Cuffia, Everhart, Finney, Freeman, Gowaty, Hasson, Honick, Hryczyszyn, Klaes, Lacey, Litvinovicz, Lyle, Mazur, Menk, Meyer, Naamy, Pessolano, Roof, Semran, Szymanski, Thomas.

THE Varsity Club is an honorary athletic fraternity, composed of varsity football and basketball players. Membership is limited to those who have earned a varsity "K" in either of the two sports. The club handled the A-K Tournament very ably, preserving peace and order at all games.

Members: Baumiller, Boyer, Braden, Broffman, DeMayo, Dickey, Goodiski, Goodlet, Harkins, Hartman, Hughan, Johnson, Kautzman, Keitzer, Kubal, Lavery (president), Lukosky, McKeever, Pawlak, Peligrinelli, Redman, Richardson, Ross (secretary-treasurer), Sconing, Shonesky, Stadterman, Veitch, Villella, Wareham, Williams, Zunic.

KEN HI'S STURDY MEN FALL INTO LINE IN VARSITY CLUB

Music

The Glee Clubs, Band and Orchestras furnish music for many occasions

A SCHOOL without music and harmony would be like an old two-wheeled buggy bumping over a frozen mud road. Therefore, if it is harmony a school needs to be successful, an excellent music department puts Ken Hi on the first rung of the ladder of success.

PLACE on that rung is held secure by our glee club, organized to give students a better understanding and appreciation of music. The membership is limited, for only those who have the so-called "ear" for music and those who can "carry" a tune have the privilege of becoming members. In order to discover this talent, a try-out is held and after each person has sung, Miss Powell chooses the successful group. In the fall of 1937 she organized both a girls' and a boys' glee club. It was more difficult to form the boys' club, for the boys did not seem to be able to spare either their time or their talents. On January 24 the directress combined the two clubs to form a mixed chorus. It is Miss Powell's aim to develop a good chorus of mixed voices, and later an a'capella choir.

The present glee club practices each Monday and Wednesday from 3:15 to 5:00. The main reason that this organization has succeeded is that only those who are interested are members. As time passes, the club becomes more active and this year it has sung for chapel programs of the school and has fulfilled several other engagements.

Marie Sabetta, a student of Ken Hi, is the very able and dependable accompanist.

Boys: Akers, Baker, Bruno, Caruso, Cavendar, Constantino, DeSimone, Embree, Gallagher, Horzempa, Klingensmith, List, Little, McAllister, McMann, Merryman, Nichols, Redman, Siciliano, Solomon, Truby, Venger, Walker, Yingst.

KEN HI'S claim to success is further assured as the signal is given, the drums beat, the horns blow, and the band strikes up, with Mr. Gregory directing.

To be eligible to membership in the band, one must prove his ability to play his instrument and to read music. At the beginning of the school term a try-out is held. Anyone desiring to play in the band plays his instrument, Mr. Gregory listens attentively with his "musical ear" and if the sounds that come forth please him, the player is chosen.

MISS POWELL'S GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

KEN HI IS PROUD OF THE BOYS' GLEE CLUB

The band is composed of trumpet, clarinet, alto, bass, flute, baritone, saxaphone, drum and cymbal sections. This well-trained musical organization plays at all football and basketball games, at safety meetings, at the school's assemblies. It marches in the Armistice Day parade and holds a band concert.

Being a member of the band is not all play. Each member must be on his toes, attend long and tedious practices, practice marching and learn to make a good appearance and to follow Mr. Gregory, the director, and Millie DeLuca, the leader.

Band Members: Abrese, Anderson,

Baker, Barnes, Bennett, Bevan, Brill, Bruno, Buckner, Choltco, Cramer, De Luca, Edmond, Edwards, Eger, Fitzmaurice, Fletcher, Geiger, Hanna, Hepler, Hicks, C. Kwake, J. Kwake, S. Kwake, List, Lodowski, Long, Malyn, Mangini, Mike, Monaco, Merryman, Nagel, Redman, Rackoff, Smeltzer, Sproull, Siciliano, Summerhill, Ruppel, Stevens, Willmore and Walker.

A S another bid for harmony Ken Hi presents the Kensylvanians. This orchestra provides all the music for the tea dances held by the various organizations of the school. Without the Kensylvanians the clubs would have to find some other way to make money and the students would miss a great deal of fun. The orchestra is now under faculty supervision and the membership has grown until at the present time Ken Hi has a large and "dandy" orchestra.

As in each organization of the music department, a student becomes a member by making a success at the try-outs.

Members: Aiman, Brown, Fitzmaurice, Finger, Hanna, F. Lodowski, H. Lodowski, Long, Pawlak, Ruppel and Mr. Gregory, director.

A ND now the school orchestra completes Ken Hi's claim to harmony. Although the orchestra is not very active, it gives to those who play an instrument and who are truly interested in good music and musical work, experience in playing in an orchestra. The members learn to follow the conducting of a leader, to interpret music and to play classical music. It makes for a true understanding and appreciation of better music.

Members: Brill, Bruno, Cascarelli, Cramer, Delasin, Edwards, Embree, Fitzmaurice, Hanna, Horzempa, Johasky, Kwake, List, Monaca, Pawlak, Rusnock, Sabetta, Shores, Summerhill and Mr. Gregory, director.

AND THEY FOR DRAMATICS

Hobbies

When every lesson is well done, The student deserves to have some fun.

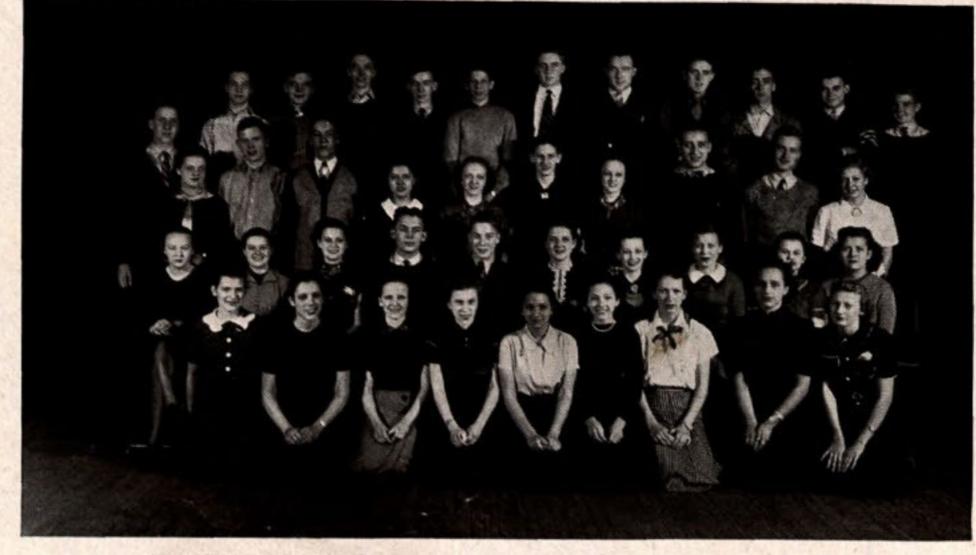

THE dictionary defines a hobby as being something in which one takes an absorbing interest. In Ken Hi there are five clubs—Troupe 14 of the National Thespians, Leaders' Club, Stamp Club, Camera Club, and Art Club—which have endeavored through the past year to encourage and stimulate the interest of the students in various hobbies.

STRIVING to promote an active interest in dramatics, Troupe 14 of the National Thespians plays a conspicuous part in the social and cultural activities of the school. This organization consists of two groups, the National Thespians and the Dramatic Club. Previous to 1935 the club had no national affiliations, but in that year, the Dramatic Club, as it was then called, received its charter as a member of the National Thespians. Members of the Dramatic Club are eligible for Thespian membership after they have participated in several small plays designed to increase their knowledge of make-up, proper expression, and other important thespianic functions.

Members: Aiman, Akers, Allen, Alter, Baker, Baum, Barnes, Beacom (secretary), Bloom, Braden, Broffman, Cooke, DeMayo, Dickey, Doar, Euwer (vice president), Everhart, Eyler, Fink, Guinn, Grazier, Hayes, Heckman, Jones (treasurer), Leipertz, Linney, Luther, Martucci, Marr, Morse, Murray, Poole, Rackoff, Roberts, Shearer (president), Snyder, Sutter, Swanson, Thomas, Van Ameringen, Wachter, Weaver, and Miss Fiscus (sponsor).

EADERS' CLUB was organized to stimulate an active interest in girls' sports and to encourage sportsmanship and leadership throughout the school. Members are chosen from the sophomore, junior, and senior girls' gym classes for their active participation as leaders in their classes and for their excellence in the field of sports. As a part of their yearly activities the girls aid in the supervision and refereeing of the games in girls' gym classes. During the year the club sponsors an annual indoor and outdoor play day and a Lollipop Day.

Members: Allen, Beals, Bloom, Carrier, Chesney, DeLuca, Everhart (president), M. Farneth, I. M. Farneth, Fitzgerald, Gowaty (treasurer), Gray, Giuliani, Jones, Joseph, Kearney, Kozlowski, Krynicki, Lamie, Luffy, Marello, Marshall, Mazur, McMahon, McQuaide, Menk, Mike, Nagel, Neahmia, Nevling, Noden, Redman, Reisch, Sabetta, Schlarman, Scholze, Semran (secretary), the youngest organizations in the school, the club since its organization three years ago has engaged many and varied means of putting its program across. This year this club stimulated philatelic interest among its members through a multitude of unique innovations. As their first project they inaugurated a stamp auction which made it possible for members to auction off to the highest bidders stamps which they did not want. Another project was the issuance of a small leaflet entitled "A Course in the Art of Philately." The club this year was divided into senior and junior divisions. To which category the member belonged depended on his knowledge of stamps.

Members: Bowman (secretary), Conner (president), Fassett, Finch, Little, R. Mazur (treasurer), W. Mazur, McDonald, Miller, Morgan, Myers, Opinsky, Pethick, Siciliano (vice president), Toomey, Yeager, and Mr. Gantz (sponsor).

IN A YEAR which saw the act of candid snapping come into great prominence, it was appropriate that a Camera Club should arise in Ken Hi and absorb all those interested in the pursuit of photography. Organized under the guiding hand of Mr. Hadden during the second week of September, the club quickly started to function. As their first project the members constructed a dark room in a vacant room leading from 401. The club has also sponsored two photographic contests in which all the members of the student body were urged to participate. As a part of their meeting program the members are given instructions in the use and care of cameras and are taught how to use the dark room in developing pictures.

Members: Beals, Best, Bevan, Blotter, Bowman, Brisbin, Burchick, Chesney, E. Conner, S. Conner, Crawford, Fletcher (vice president), Harwick, Hemphill, Herford, Jacobus, Joseph, Kanaan, Klingensmith, Long, Lusk, McAllister, McDade (president), McKinnon, McQuaide, Menk, Nagel, Price, Ross, Shaffer, Siciliano, Toomey, D. Walker, T. Walker; Mr. Hadden (sponsor).

THE ART CLUB is made up of students who show exceptional artistic ability. The activities of the club have included a visit to the International Art Exhibit in Pittsburgh, visits to the different Pittsburgh department stores at Christmas, and a theater party to see Ted Shawn and his dancers. To display their own talents, the club members have given a marionette show at a Parnassus Junior High School Assembly.

THERE MAY BE A SECOND MICHAELANGELO HERE

Academic

Various academic clubs tend to stimulate the student's interest in his subjects.

Having concluded twelve hectic and tumultuous years of a somewhat educational nature, the seniors gaze fondly at the wake of their dozen years of undoubtedly beneficial mental exertion. Among the high school recollections which will ever be treasured are those of the social life or extra-curricular activities. These will no doubt remain the most pleasant of the innumerable retrospections, inasmuch as they were the most enjoyable and demanded little or no strenuous endeavor on the part of the student.

The scholar usually found time outside his scheduled class routine to belong to a few organizations which appealed to him for their educational value, their interest to him, or the benefit which he could derive from them. Among these organizations were the French Club, Commercial Club, College Club, Student Savings Bank, Latin Club, Debating Club, Home Economics Club, and Culinary Arts Club.

OUT OF THE RANKS of the College Club will probably come the future "Joe Colleges," though they are now working under evident stress on the texts and references of ordinary high school students. The club has provided its members with an advanced outlook on college life through the medium of pamphlets, motion pictures, speakers and books, which were usually supplied by the nearby colleges and universities.

Members: Abbott, Adams, Allen, Alter, Baish, Baranowski, Beacom, Benzer, Beuth, Blotter, Braden, Brown, Buckner, Caruthers, E. Conner, R. Conner, Cowen, Crusan, Euwer, Everhart, Finch, Fink, Fletcher, Flynn, Freeman, Gabel, Gowaty, Gray, Hartman, Honick, Kerr, Klingensmith, Lacey, Leech, Little, Long, Luther, McQuaide, Menk, Miller, Mitchell, Moran, Morton, Mulholland, Nevling, O'Brien, Olivo, Roberts, Shaffer, Schlarman, Shearer, Siciliano, Sommer, Svenson, Taylor, Templin, Van Ameringen, Wachter, Weichsel, Yingst, and Zender.

A NNIVERSARY NUMBER TEN, which was celebrated by the Commercial Club, was one of the outstanding events of the club year. Ten years ago, when the club was first organized, the membership totaled only twelve and at the present it wavers in the vicinity of one hundred twenty-five. This goes to show that the modern business man will have a sufficient number of efficient secretaries for years to come. The club, sponsored by Mr. Kordes, has a right to feel the inner glow of satisfaction, for it is not only the largest organization of the school, but it is one of the most beneficial. It not only serves as an outlet for the fact-fed commercial students in extra-curricular activity but it assists the student with the valuable business training necessary for a successful student to become a successful business man or woman.

Members: Abraham, Askin, Bailey, Banachowski, Belli, Beuth, Bevan, Bohaychick, Bonidy, Botzer, Buchanan, Buffone, Camp, Capsambelis, Carnevale, Carson, Chesney, Christas, Daugerdas, Davis, DeLuca, Dosch, Drzymala, Feledik, Fink, Fitzmaurice, Foryt, Gallagher, George, Gidos, Gloviczky, Gould, Greco, Grillo, Hadad, Haley, Hancock, Hankey, Hilliard, Howard, Hryczyszyn, Isaac, E. CAPITALISTS and financiers will the members of our bank become if they continue in the occupation in which they are now so successfully engaged. The bank is the hub around which the business transactions of many students and every club in the school revolve. Although the Student Savings Bank has no investments and pays no interest, it is as trustworthy as any similar organization in the country, for the student bankers, chosen from the classes of the junior commercial students, must rate high scholastically.

Bank Staff: Bates, Beard, Bonidy, De Luca, Drag, Pawlak, Spakowski, Yeager, and Miss Doherty.

SENATUS DISCIPULIQUE ROMA-NUS, although a Brobdingnagian title, is really only a Latin student's manner of expressing himself when he wishes to inform an inquisitive fellow student that he is a member of the high school Latin Club.

Although this organization was established a number of years ago and was discontinued for a period, it has been reestablished only this year and has been accorded the recognition due an organization of its caliber. The purpose of the club is to acquaint the Latin student with an interior view of the various phases of the Roman's daily life, customs, laws, government, and beliefs. It has been quite successful in achieving its purpose up to the present time.

At the November meeting club members discussed the Oracle of Delphi and organized the meeting so as to have the program revolve around the idea of an Oracle of Delphi meeting. The December meeting was quite as exciting as its predecessor. Club members sang Christmas carols in Latin and were audience to a speech on the Roman Saturnalia. This was followed by a dramatization in which the Saturnalia and our American Christmas were compared. In January the students discussed the Roman calendar and its outstanding dates and the February meeting consisted of a discussion in which the Italy of Caesar's time was compared with the Italy of today.

I UMBER TWO of the language clubs is the French Club, less frequently known as Le Cercle Francais. This organization, which has been repeatedly successful in the projects which it undertakes, has won renown for its delicious home-made confections. The candy is ordinarily sold at the annual French Club Candy Sale, and at the various other activities which are sponsored by the club.

Another interesting practice in which the club engages is the exchange of correspondence with French students. These letters are written in French and encourage the study of the subject. This practice has set a precedent which has been avidly followed by many of the students of this school.

At the club meetings, which are monthly affairs, the members sing French and American songs, play French games, and are often entertained by outside speakers. Miss Mathison spoke of her impressions of France and the French people as she saw them last summer.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS EQUALS THE FRENCH CLUB

HOME ECONOMICS DOES MANY THINGS

A LTHOUGH not essentially an academic organization, the Home Economics Club has been instrumental in bringing the economic students together, and therewith fostering a desire in them to further their education along that line. Among their activities were the mothers' tea, Hallowe'en party, tea dance and the trips made en masse to various factories in and near our vicinity.

Members: Blaszak, Christopher, Gallo, Galzerano, Geiger, Gensamer, Girardi, Henry, Janello, Jones, Mayfield, Mazotta, MacDonald, Praniewicz, Radomska, Schooles, Skupieska, Spohn, Thomas, Weaver, Woodard, and Miss Bryant (sponsor).

LESS ACTIVE than most of the organizations of Ken Hi is the Culinary Arts Club. It is open to persons interested in cooking, and its aim is to instill in its members a feeling of the importance of their work.

Within the past year the members of the club have aided the Home Economics Club and have served at the various banquets held in the school. It is expected that the club will enrich itself as time goes on, and become more active both academically and socially.

Members: Anderson (secretary), Bernardi, Cohen, De Felice (treasurer), Devlin, Ferguson, Fink, Gatto (vice president), Geiger, O'Connell, Rutkowski, Susek (president), Wareham; Miss Bryant (sponsor).

Service Clubs

Students derive many benefits from the Tri-Hi-Y, Hi-Y, and Junior Patrol.

SERVICE CLUBS are those whose members are interested not only in service for the club but also in service to the community. In our school this group includes the Tri-Hi-Y, the Hi-Y, the Vocational Hi-Y, and the Junior Patrol. The "Y" clubs are concerned mostly with the shaping and training of young people's bodies, minds, and ideals. The Junior Patrol is concerned with the safety of the school child on his way to and from school.

IN 1929 a group of senior and junior girls organized the Tri-Hi-Y. Its purpose is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character and to promote better sportsmanship among the students of Ken Hi. It attempts at the same time to secure a close bond of friendship among the girls.

Each month the club holds a business meeting and a social meeting and during the last nine years has been one of the most active in the school. It has sponsored several school campaigns to improve the sportsmanship of the students and each year at Christmas time has distributed baskets for the city's needy. This group sponsored during the last year a "Big Apple Day," which was enjoyed by every student. In addition, they contributed to the school activities with a semi-private dance, a Faculty Tea, a Mother and Daughter Banquet, a tea dance, and a bake sale.

The sponsors of this organization for the last year were Miss Doherty and Miss Klingensmith, while the official positions were filled during the first semester by Ruth Wachter, president; Helen Murray, vice president; Betty Williams, secretary, and Nancy Turney, treasurer; during the second semester by Norma Finch, president; Mary Jane Richards, vice president; Martha Semran, secretary, and Irene Conner, treasurer.

Members: Alter, Armitage, Baish, Baker, Banachowski, Barber, Beard, Bonidy, Chamrad, Conner, Cooke, Easley, Euwer, Everhart, Eyler, B. Finch, N. Finch, Fink, Glock, Grazier, Guinn, Hasson, Hayes, H. Johnson, M. Johnson, Keller, Leipertz, Linney, Luther, R. Mazur, W. Mazur, McQuaide, Menk, Murray, O'Brien, Richard, Semran, Thomas, Turney, Wachter, Williams, Yengling.

THE HI-Y is a group of senior, junior, and sophomore boys under the directorship of Mr. George D. Wheeler. The purpose of this club is, like that of the Tri-Hi-Y, to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character. It has some worthwhile aims which every boy should strive to attain. These aims are clean speech, clean sports, clean thoughts, and clean living, and to help the boy attain them the Hi-Y meets weekly at the Y. M. C. A. At these meetings the boys hear many excellent speakers who discuss youth problems. Some of the main activities of last year were the Older Boy Conference and the Hi-Y conference. The club sponsors many school campaigns and every spring the boys give a banquet for their mothers, and also one for their fathers.

Senior Members: Abbott, Aiman, Allen,

Anderson, Baker, Blotter (secretary), Braden, Conner, Crusan, Dickey, Eckman, Finch, Hanna, Hess, Johnson, Kerr, Klingensmith, H. Lindh, P. Lindh, Morton, Piemme, Roberts (treasurer), Shaffer, Shearer (president), Sheldon (vice president).

Junior Members: Campbell, Caruso, Connor (treasurer), Crawford, DeSimone, Finger (president), Flick, Hall, Johnson, Kline, Miller, Morgan, Price, Raught, Resch, Siciliano (vice president), Sweeney (secretary), Thomas, Truby, Wilson.

THE VOCATIONAL HI-Y was organied in 1934 under the supervision of Mr. Anderson, who is still the sponsor. The aim of this club is to promote school spirit, to uphold sportsmanship, to keep the Hi-Y ideals of clean body, clean speech, clean mind, clean spirit, and to bring about a better understanding of true friendship. It endeavors also to help the boys in their choice of life work, and tries to develop self-confidence and pride in one's work.

Members: Behanna, Gruendling, Joswig, Keitzer (vice president), Lloyd, Lucas, Praniewicz, Redetzki (secretary and treasurer), Richardson (president), Ross, Timblin.

THE JUNIOR SCHOOL PATROL is now in its sixth consecutive successful year. It was organized on September 29, 1932, through the efforts and foresight of the chief of police, and under the supervision of Patrolman William B. Fowler. During these past six years over one thousand school students have acted as officers and patrolmen on fifty of New Kensington's most hazardous intersections. The primary purpose of the Junior Patrol is student safety, attained by supervising the child on his way to and from school.

The patrol usually consists of approximately one hundred and twenty members each year. It is the safety valve of modern youth's progress which controls and trains him in the practical requisites of successful citizenship. It accomplishes this by stimulating and encouraging the initiative of each boy. It presents an opportunity to teach safety methods in an interesting and practical manner by allowing him to become familiar with the laws of discipline.

Athletics

In five interscholastic sports, the Kenmen, over a period of one year have won thirty-three games, lost sixteen, tied one.

a member of the faculty and thirteenth year as coach at Ken Hi, Carl Glock has left a splendid record of his work. This past season shows a record of twenty-five wins to six losses and one tie. He has consistently turned out winning teams. Coach Glock is noted especially for his basketball teams, which under his guidance have been six times the winners of Section I, two times W. P. I. A. L. champs, in '30 and '34, and two times winners of the A. K. V. tournament. Coach is famous for his big, black cigars and his warm smile. He takes the former to football games; he wears the latter all the time.

To Mr. J. L. Black, a prominent member of the Vocational Faculty and assistant coach of the football team, goes the credit for the brilliant showing of the Ken Hi forward wall. He knows the art of training the players and is highly praised by the members of the squad. Besides his football duties, he coaches the Vocational basketball team, and assists Coach Artman with the Golf Team.

Witty and humorous remarks are well taken care of on the football field by Assistant Coach "Suds" Lenox. His difficult task is the fundamental training of boys for the future varsity. These boys are known as the "Ironmen" and are fed to Coach Glock's varsity throughout the season as cannon fodder. He is also the popular Junior High basketball coach.

The management of the baseball team is well taken care of by Coach "Al" Dunn. After a lapse of twelve years, the sport has been renewed at Ken Hi under his guidance. Mr. Dunn is also the mentor of football and basketball at Parnassus Junior High. He is held high in the esteem of the players and is known as a friend as well as a coach.

Golf was introduced into Ken Hi as a scholastic sport four years ago. Russell A. Artman, because of his wide knowledge of the game, was appointed coach. He has not turned out any championship teams, but a lot of credit should be given to this quiet, congenial member of the Athletic Board of Strategy for the fine showing his teams have made in defeat.

Although Harry C. Hadden II is furnished with a wealth of material and is himself an excellent player, he has a difficult time building winning teams, because of the bad weather which seems to crop up yearly during the practice season. This year we hope Jupiter Pluvius will give Coach Hadden a break so he may be able to put our school up where it belongs in scholastic tennis.

The custodian of football equipment who is responsible for the excellent appearance of the Kenmen on the gridiron is Mr. Merle J. Gensbigler. Known to the players as "Gens," he is well liked by them. The boys appreciate his kindness and understanding.

Last, but very important, is the Financial Manager of Athletics, Mr. J. Robert Sisley. A fitting man for the work, he does it wisely and efficiently.

PROSPECTS for a successful football season were none too bright when Head Coach Carl Glock looked over the candidates reporting for the first practice.

Using five returning lettermen, James Lavery, Charles Redman, Bill Ross, Mike Shonesky and Henry Williams—as a nucleus around which to mould his team, Mr. Glock, with the aid of his two assistants, Mr. Black and Mr. Lenox, began construction. The outlook was somewhat brightened by the return of Wilbert Kautzman to athletic competition after a year's absence, and the enrollment of Gene Lukosky, who had played previously at German Township.

Still lacking a center, two ends and a back, Coach Glock filled these positions with talent that had displayed itself within the first week of practice. Using this team in a series of intersquad scrimmages and a pre-season game with the Alumni, he was more or less determined that these boys would get the call for the opening game: Baumiller, center; J. Lavery and Lukosky, guards; Redman and Williams, tackles; Kubal and Zunic, ends; Goodiski, Kautzman, Ross and Shonesky, backs.

With no captain being elected, each returning letterman was given an opportunity to act as captain during the season. Following are the games in which each letterman acted as captain: James Lavery, Scott and Taylor-Allderdice; Charles Redman, Westinghouse; Bill Ross, Peabody and Monongahela; Mike Shonesky, Bell Township, Har-Brac and Vandergrift; Henry Williams, Jeannette.

SEEKING revenge for the defeat handed them last year by Bell township, the Kenmen gained an impressive victory over their opponents. In the first quarter Ross scored, to give the Kensters a 6-0 lead over the Bells. The Kenmen missed the extra point but after a long and beautiful run by Ross in the second quarter, Kautzman scored from the four-yard marker, with Shonesky place-kicking successfully to put the Dutchmen out in front by a 13-0 margin. The Bells' only threat of the game was repulsed by the alert Ken Hi line on the oneyard line. In the fourth quarter Kautzman again scored on a beautiful end run which sent the first team to the showers, giving the substitutes an opportunity to prove their ability. In their first game of the season the Kenmen gave a good exhibition of power, speed and efficient blocking.

The following Saturday saw the Kenmen being trounced by a mighty team from North Braddock. Starting off with a bang, the Kenmen tore the strong Scott line into shreds as they marched seventy-two yards for a touchdown. A few minutes later they were down again to the Purple Raiders' 16-yard line after a march of 50 yards. At this point one of the able Ken backs fumbled, ending Ken Hi's offensive gestures for the game. Turning loose one of the best passing and running attacks ever seen by a Ken Hi team, the Scotts took matters into their own hands and scored two touchdowns in the second quarter to give them a 12-6 lead at the half. The Kenmen made a desperate attempt for a comeback in the third quarter, but wilted under pressure of the Scotts. The Purple Raiders scored their final touchdown of the game by again launching an effective aerial attack and adding the extra point to give them a 19-6 victory. Particular mention should be made of Kautzman, Kubal and Ross for their exceptional playing.

A successful plunge for an extra point by Fullback Shonesky gave the Flaming Kenmen a 7-6 victory over Peabody High. Outweighed but not outclassed, the Scarlet Scourge was completely checked in their own territory. During the first half the Kenmen made three brilliant goal line stands. In the third quarter Halfback "Ikey" Ross intercepted a pass on his own thirty-sevenyard line, and, behind beautiful blocking, returned the ball to his own thirteen-yard line. A few plays later Kautzman went over standing up on an end sweep. In the passing minutes of the third quarter "Bobo," triplethreat backfield star of Peabody, skirted the Kensters' right end and raced untouched fifty yards for a touchdown. They failed to push over the extra point, losing to the hard fighting Kenmen by one point.

Playing in a downpour of rain which turned the playing field into a sea of mud, the Kenmen held a strong Westinghouse team to a scoreless tie. Early in the first quarter the Kensters began one of their many marches to the Westinghouse last white line. The Scarlet Scourge lost the ball on the Westinghouse eight-yard line. This was as far as either team penetrated into the opponent's territory. Westinghouse, with their frequent substitutions, had the edge on the Kenmen, but a strong line held against the mighty thrusts of the Westinghouse fullback who was rated one of the best in the district. Baumiller, Kubal and Redman were stalwarts on the defense, with Baumiller playing the fifth man in the Westinghouse backfield in the fourth quarter.

Led by seven charging, smashing linemen who opened up wide holes and trampled everything before them, the ball-carrying quartet had a field day at the expense of Taylor-Allderdice. The hard labor of Coach Black was rewarded by the showing made by the seven mules who opened the holes for the four horsemen to gallop through. Unable to gain through the Flaming Kenmen's defense, the Smoky City eleven took to the air, only to find the Kensters were as well acquainted with the aeronautics of football as with setting up a ground defense. "Ikey" Ross gave a good exhibition of broken field running, turning in many long runs which put the ball in scoring positions for his mates to cross that last white line.

Kautzman, likewise, turned in some nice runs but featured on the defense intercepting opponents' passes. Shonesky plunged over with the pigskin twice and also added an extra point. Zunic and Goodiski accounted for two other touchdowns to give the Flaming Kenmen a 25-0 victory.

In as thrilling a game as has been seen in many a year, led by the flying heels of "Billy" Ross, the Kenmen returned the defeat handed them last year by the charges of Jeannette High. Ross took the scoring end of the game into his own hands. Intercepting a Jeannette pass, he raced fifty-two yards for the first score. Later in the fourth quarter he scored on an off-tackle play, twisting and cutting back to evade the entire Jeannette secondary. Shonesky added the extra point to give the Kenmen a 13-0 victory. The only Jeannette threat was stopped by interception of a Jeannette pass on the Kenmen's seventeen-yard stripe. Baumiller snarled this pass and started on his famous "unfinished run," being brought down on the Kensters' forty-five-yard stripe. Henry Williams, acting captain, was the line stalwart of the game, repulsing all attempts of Jeannette to gain through his tackle position.

Outplaying, outcharging and outfighting their opponents, the Scarlet Scourge turned in a decisive victory over the Green and White of Har-Brac. Again the forward wall of the Kensters opened up big holes in their opponent's line to have Fullback Shonesky drive through for an average of seven yards. Ross, Kautzman and Goodiski all turned in some beautiful runs. The Kenmen played hard ball and had to come from behind in the fourth quarter to defeat their opponents, 14-12.

Completely outplaying the Mon City boys, the Glockmen, buoyed up by the long runs of Kautzman, turned in a 7-0 victory over a fighting eleven. It was not until the last quarter that the Kenmen were able to push across the seven points that gave them their sixth victory of the season. Wilbert Kautzman played his best game of the season, exhibiting some fast and clever running. Charles Redman played well for the linemen, being the strong man on the defense.

Opposed by the fleet-footed Halfback Bill Ross, the Blue and White of Vandergrift went down to defeat at the hands of a hard fighting band of Ken Hi footballers. The nine seniors, Kautzman, Kubal, Lavery, Lukosky, Redman, Ross, Shonesky, Williams and Zunic, gave a good account of themselves in their last game. The line had one of the hardest afternoons of the season but fared well. The Kenmen made two of their familiar power marches to close the season with seven wins, one loss and one tie.

Wilbert Kautzman — added the spark necessary to complete a backfield feared by all opponents. His game, "never-give-up" spirit was a big factor in many long marches of the Kensters.

Stanley Kubal-noted for his ability to grab passes and his consistency in breaking up the opponent's interference. He showed his speed in going down under punts and his endurance by playing the full sixty minutes in most games.

SEVEN WINS - ONE LOSS - ONE TIE

THE BASKETBALL TEAM HAD AN EXCITING SEASON

James Lavery—one of the lightest boys ever to play a guard position on a Ken Hi team. He was particularly feared by his opponents because of the manner in which he broke into their backfield on the defense and because of his excellent blocking on the offense.

Gene Lukosky — a very fast charging guard whose blocking started Ken backs on many long runs. Although not a stand-out performer, he was a bulwark on the defense and gave opposing linesmen a busy day.

Charles Redman—noted for his rugged endurance and hard playing. "Dutchy" was considered the best tackle in the valley. He was voted a tackle position on the All-County team for two consecutive years.

Billy Ross—a fleet-footed halfback who thrilled fans for two years by piercing opponents' lines to lead his teammates to many victories. He was famous for his cut-backs and evasion of the opponent's secondary. He, too, was given a position on the All-County team during his two years of varsity competition.

JUST BEFORE THE BATTLE

COACH BLACK'S PRIDE AND JOY

Mike Shonesky—will be remembered as a made-over end, whose plunging and punting in the fullback's position helped the Kenmen no little. In his first two years he played a terminal, but filled in nicely in the backfield in his senior year.

Henry Williams—his fast charging and fight displayed in the game with Jeannette caused him to be classed as the fiercest player ever to wear a Red and Black uniform. He received recognition on the All-W.P.I.A.L. team.

Matt Zunic—"Muttzie" was the boy who pulled the game out of the fire against Har-Brac by snaring passes that put the Kensters in position to cross the last white line.

THE basketball team opened the season with an impressive victory over Ford City, last year's W. P. I. A. L. champion. The second game was an overwhelming victory over W. P. I. D. to the tune of 57-33. The Kenmen then left on a northern trip, where they defeated Punxsutawney, then edged out a hard-fought victory over Brookville the following day. Turning back Ford City again proved costly to the Kenmen and they went down to defeat at the hands of Beaver Falls and Alumni. The Kenmen revenged the defeat handed them by Beaver Falls by taking a close game on their home court, 33-30. Their last game before league competition began was another victory over Punxsutawney.

A WEALTH OF MATERIAL COMING UP

COACH DUNN'S FIRST BASEBALL TEAM

In the first three section tilts, the Kenmen looked like the probable section winners. The first game was a close victory for the Kenmen over Springdale, followed by two breathers, Tarentum and Freeport, to the respective scores of 50-32 and 50-24. The next game, with their bitter rival, Arnold, became an oddity in the news. The game was called at the end of the third quarter because fog had drifted through the open windows and had settled on the floor as moisture. The Kenmen lost the next game in the dying minutes of the fourth quarter to give the Green and White of Har-Brac the section lead. After suffering their third defeat of the season, the Kenmen came to life and trounced Springdale, 41-17, Tarentum 50-31 and Kiski Prep 53-42. The Kenmen then took an easy victory from Freeport in the roughest game of the season. Arnold was the next victim of the Kensters. The game was close in the first half, but the Kenmen pulled away in the second to administer the defeat for which they had waited all season. The score, 33-18, does not show the real exhibition of basketball displayed by these two rivals. In the next game, the section title was at stake. Har-Brac had run up a string of eighteen consecutive victories for the season. The Kenmen were much in the game until Har-Brac pulled away in the fourth quarter to send the Kenmen home minus the section lead by the score of 34-25.

The Kenmen then entered the thirteenth annual A. K. V. tournament, eliminating Swissvale in the first round in a hectic game, 44-33. In the quarter finals, they had to come from behind to win a sluggish game from Aspinwall, advancing to the semi-finals with Butler, defending champions, as their opponents. The Glockmen had little trouble subduing Butler, 39-28, and entered the finals with Ambridge. The Kensters led their opponents for three quarters, but slowed up in the fourth to be completley outscored for the half.

The Kenmen averaged 37.34 points per game for the season to their opponents' 27.43. The team scored a total of 859 points to their opponents' 631. Hartman was high scorer for the season with 244 points. In the section race Zunic was second high scorer with 91 and Hartman followed with 89 points. The Kenmen were very poor at the foul line, making only 168 out of 301 free tosses, for an average of .558.

The seniors this year were Lamont Dickey, Pierre Hartman, Stanley Kubal, George Veitch and Matt Zunic.

Matt Zunic, considered the best guard in the valley last year, led his teammates to many a victory. Playing a forward this year, he scored second to highest number of points in the section race, relinquishing his high scoring honor of last year. He was rated high by the coaches of Section I and was voted a guard position on the first All-Section team.

George Veitch was a consistent guard during his two years of varsity basketball. He made many spectacular blocks, was a hard fighter and an even-tempered ball player.

He, too, was voted a position among the first ten on the All-Section team.

Pierre Hartman, lanky, six-foot-four-inch center, was a great asset to the Kenmen. He was alert at taking the ball from the bank board and often amazed the crowd with his one-hand shots. Of more value he would have been if the rule had not been changed, eliminating the center jump. He was voted number two center position on the All-Section team.

Lamont Dickey, number six man, filled in many times in pinches. He was a scrappy player, handled the ball nicely and was an accurate shot.

Stanley Kubal, Kinloch's gift to Ken Hi, saw plenty of action. His chief drawback was his ability to foul opponents and get caught in the act.

Junior members of the squad that received varsity letters were Edward Baumiller, Wayne Boyer, Walter Pawlak.

Walter Pawlak, completing his second year of varsity basketball, is considered one of the best floor men to appear at Ken Hi for quite a while. He was the best all-around player on the team. He demonstrated his speed on fast breaks and his fight in scrambles for the ball on the defense. He did his share of scoring and played hard all year. His play was the big factor that kept Ken Hi in the tournament until the finals. He was named on the All-A. K. V. tournament team and rated among the ten best players in Section I.

Edward Baumiller, the "Unsung Hero," took little pride in scoring, but consistently fed the ball to his mates. He was a hard, unspectacular ball player whose coolness under fire amazed everyone.

Wayne Boyer, whose first attempt at varsity basketball was a success, saw plenty of action and will probably fill a position on the Glock quintet next season.

Other promising members of the squad are John Armstrong, George Behanna, James Broffman and Carl Sokalski.

THE vocational basketball record for last season shows thirteen wins and fourteen losses. The record made in the past season was not up to that set in previous years. All members of the team displayed good sportsmanship, showed excellent team spirit and the desire to co-operate at all times. Rysz and Cypher were high scorers with 259 and 212 points, respectively. The burden of the defense was carried by Bavera and Codelka.

SIS, BOOM, BAH! RAH! RAH! RAH!

Coach Lenox's Junior Hi basketball team had a very good season. The boys were small, clever and aggressive. They improved steadily throughout the season and became one of the best passing teams in their section. Their record for the season shows thirteen wins and six losses. The members of the first team were Kenneth Bakewell, John Esper, Dick Kenny, Theodore Mishtal, Ray Renock.

ASEBALL was revived at Ken Hi last year after a lapse of twelve years. With inconsistent practice caused by Old Man River overflowing his banks, and the weather varying from rain to shine, the team was able to chalk up three wins against three losses. With the loss of only six lettermen by graduation-Eggie Albrick, William Faloon, Wilbur Repp, Richard Sproull, John Tusing and Francis Wiedl-and with several fine prospects coming up, Coach Dunn looks forward this year to a possible championship contender. Underclassmen awarded letters were as follows: Robert De Lotto, Glenn Harkins, Charles Mangini, John Pelegrinelli, Harry Pethick, James Renock, Tom Richardson, Edmund Rysz, Mike Shonesky, Walter Speck and Matt Zunic.

THE golf team showed a marked improvement over previous years. Led by Albert Belli, the team turned in three victories against three defeats. Two of these defeats were suffered at the hands of Kiski Prep, a team that had the advantage of having more experience than the Kenmen. With two lettermen returning and a wealth of material available, Coach Artman hopes to present a team that will bring prestige to Ken Hi in the world of scholastic golf. Varsity letters were awarded to Edward Abdo, Edward Aszkiniewicz, Albert Belli, Alfred Belli, James Flynn and Norman Sam. Edward Aszkiniewicz and Alfred Belli are the returning lettermen.

THE cheerleaders, sponsored by Mr. Hadden, played a very important part in keeping up the school spirit at the football and basketball games and have displayed fine form in doing so. They have been a big help to athletics in Ken Hi, and may they continue their good work. Two senior leaders, Dorothy Leipertz and Joe Moran, have earned their varsity awards. Margaret Cooke, Betty Hoskins, Billy Johnson and Howard Newmeyer received junior varsity awards.

Robert McVey, and four underclassmen, Lamont Dickey, Joe Mitchell, Art Pessolano and Frank Pessolano, was handicapped by not having courts available for practice. The boys succeeded in winning only two of six matches. Their season's record does not show the real talent displayed by the members of the team. The Kenmen managed to finish in a tie for third place with Springdale. With the return of four lettermen, Coach Hadden looks forward to a most successful season.

SHE'S THE LEADER OF THE BAND" is the appropriate title for the drum major, Millie DeLuca. Millie is the first of her sex to hold this position in the history of Ken Hi. Completing her second year as drum major and being only a junior, she will head the list of drum majors who have performed at Ken Hi when she is graduated. She twirls the baton with the greatest of ease and has been Mr. Gregory's prized attraction at the football and basketball games. Wherever she has performed, she has given a good exhibition of her talent and has received great applause.
