1959

Mr. Matya,

A really wonderful person.
Sorry we gave you such a rough time all year.

I've really enjoyed being in the D.E. Class and my proudest possession is my trophy. Its probably the only one I'll ever get.

Remember the good time
everyone had at the convention.
That's something I'll never forget.
I guess you won't either. I hope everyone has as good a time next year as I had this year.

Well, I guess this is it.
Good Luck! Hope you have a nice group of kids next year.

Your grateful student
Minnie L. Lusing

The Board Of Education . . .

The Class of 1959 wishes to express its gratitude to the public-minded citizens who comprise the New Kensington Board of Education. Through their planning for educational, financial, and social functions, they have made our Alma Mater one of which we can be very proud.

The members of the board include Mr. Ralph Little, president; Dr. C. G. Vonderheid, vice-president; Mr. James Patterson, treasurer; Mr. Charles Keller, Mr. Garfield Jones, Mr. Blair Gensamer, and Mr. Anthony Giordano.

The Board of Education were guests of the Student Council at the annual banquet.

... Administration

MR. JEFFERSON

Mr. Jefferson, superintendent of schools of the New Kensington School District, works with the school directors to execute the educational policies by which our schools function. He also exercises general supervision over curriculum and teaching. Our highest praise goes to his capable administration.

MR. OLIVER

Mr. Oliver, our worthy principal, is responsible for making our school function smoothly. We wish to express our sincere appreciation for the guidance, understanding, and help that he has given us.

DR. DANOVITZ

Dr. Danovitz, the very capable vocational director and assistant principal of New Kensington High School, is the man to whom the vocational students look for help. He also helps to supervise many high school activities.

THE TALEOKEN STAFF AT WORK

Taleoken Staff members separate and identify senior pictures to complete the Taleoken.

Staff members look over the receipts for Taleokens and find 1175 students purchased the book.

First Row: J. Bogardus, L. Kehris, S. Peterson, D. Drew, R. Hancock, S. Frederick, N. Dunhoff
 Second Row: L. Kupec, E. Mangini, L. Bartels, M. L. Marini, L. Voland, L. Meledandri, Miss Russell
 Third Row: K. Rowles, R. Magrini, R. Burford, S. Zabec, G. Hilbk

THE KENTONIAN STAFF

The policy of the school newspaper is to print all the news "from the student's point of view." The journalism class publishes the Kentonian monthly under the direction of Miss Russell and Mr. Shearer.

Miss Russell helps editors, Nancy and Lambra, as they meet the Kentonian deadline.

Kentonian Staff members assemble the latest edition of school newspaper.

Second Row: Mr. George, P. Hawk, G. Herman, R. Evans, S. Zabec, J. Pelegrinelli, J. Bogardus

THE HANDBOOK STAFF

Under the competent guidance of Mr. George, a select group of students compile the Handbook each year. The book provides invaluable information to all, but especially to sophomores, for it contains a list of the various clubs that can be joined, the rules and regulations to be followed, requirements for graduation and an English reading list.

The Handbook Staff edits material to be included in the 1958-1959 edition.

Beverly Heckman distributes "Kitchen Kits" to the members of the FBLA Club.

A group of clubs whose purpose is to stimulate interest in possible future careers is pictured on these pages. The Future Teachers of America is for students interested in teaching as a profession. One of the highlights this year was a meeting at which our student teachers spoke. Miss Eiges and Mr. Keiser sponsor this group. The Future Business Leaders of America have visited various business colleges and have heard speakers from the business world. The advisers are Miss Casillo and Mrs. Delia. The Future Homemakers of America, directed by Mrs. Potter and Miss Olmer, sponsor a baby-sitting course and fashion show, participate in flower shows, and make table arrangements.

THE DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION CLUB

Officers Bob Reese, Mary Remaley, and Dolores Runski have made the Distributive Education Club a fine school organization.

The D. E. Club sold "Dream Pets" to finance their service projects and field trips.

The Majorettes, led by Marion Connolly, in one of their spectacular drills.

The Majorettes and Band add that touch of color and school spirit to the football games.

THE BANDS AND THE MAJORETTES

The Band, under the baton of Mr. John Stephens, spent a week at Boosters Camp preparing for the year's performances. The Band has performed at Kennywood, the Kiwanis Tri-State Band Festival, pep rallies, football games, and the spring Band Festival.

Also directed by Mr. Stephens, the Dance Band has played for assemblies, pep rallies, and the talent show. The Majorettes have always been an attraction at Ken Hi. They lend color to the football games and inspire enthusiasm among the spectators.

THE CAMERA CLUB

The Camera Club took a major step forward this year by obtaining permission for members to use the dark room during study halls. Under the direction of Mr. Shearer, the club sponsors annually the Eastman Kodak Photo Contest and, in addition, holds monthly contests for club members.

Kenny and Frank make use of the Camera Club's dark room.

Study halls, gym classes, machine shop, drafting classes, Stanley in the boiler room, a group at a Home Ec tea, a moment in the library, Louella and Mrs. Beatty preparing lunch—all these are part of what happens within the doors of Ken Hi.

Athletics

Athletics at Ken High are an "open door" to leadership and teamwork experience. Those who enter this door are rewarded with the knowledge that they have helped uphold the honor of their Alma Mater.

FOOTBALL—1958

Despite their hard schedule and lack of experience the Ken Hi gridders played hard and provided the fans with many thrills during the 1958 season. We're all hoping that we'll fare much better the coming season.

THE CHEERLEADERS

"Let's go team!" This is the familiar cry of the six girls pictured on this page. Throughout the school year these girls try to lend support to our basketball and football teams. Attired in their red and white uniforms, they lead the student body at pep rallies and games. The 1958-59 roster of the Cheerleaders consisted of seniors, Pat Torok, Jackie Checco and Barbara Waugh and juniors, Barbara Koscianski, Sheila Frederick and Christine Onifer. Miss Pascaretta is the sponsor of this group.

The Band comes off the field after a half-time performance.

"K-E-N—H-I" is the cheer which really shows school spirit.

VARSITY BASKETBALL 1958-1959

The varsity closed a very successful season with a record of 17 wins and 8 losses. An 11 to 1 sectional record tied Ken Hi with Har-Brack and forced a playoff at McKeesport from which Ken Hi emerged the loser with a score of 62-54. This year was the final season for seniors Gary Herman, Bill Connor, Art Davis, John Holeva, Walt Fortson, and Gene Yarussi.
