Dedication

Bruce Finnin

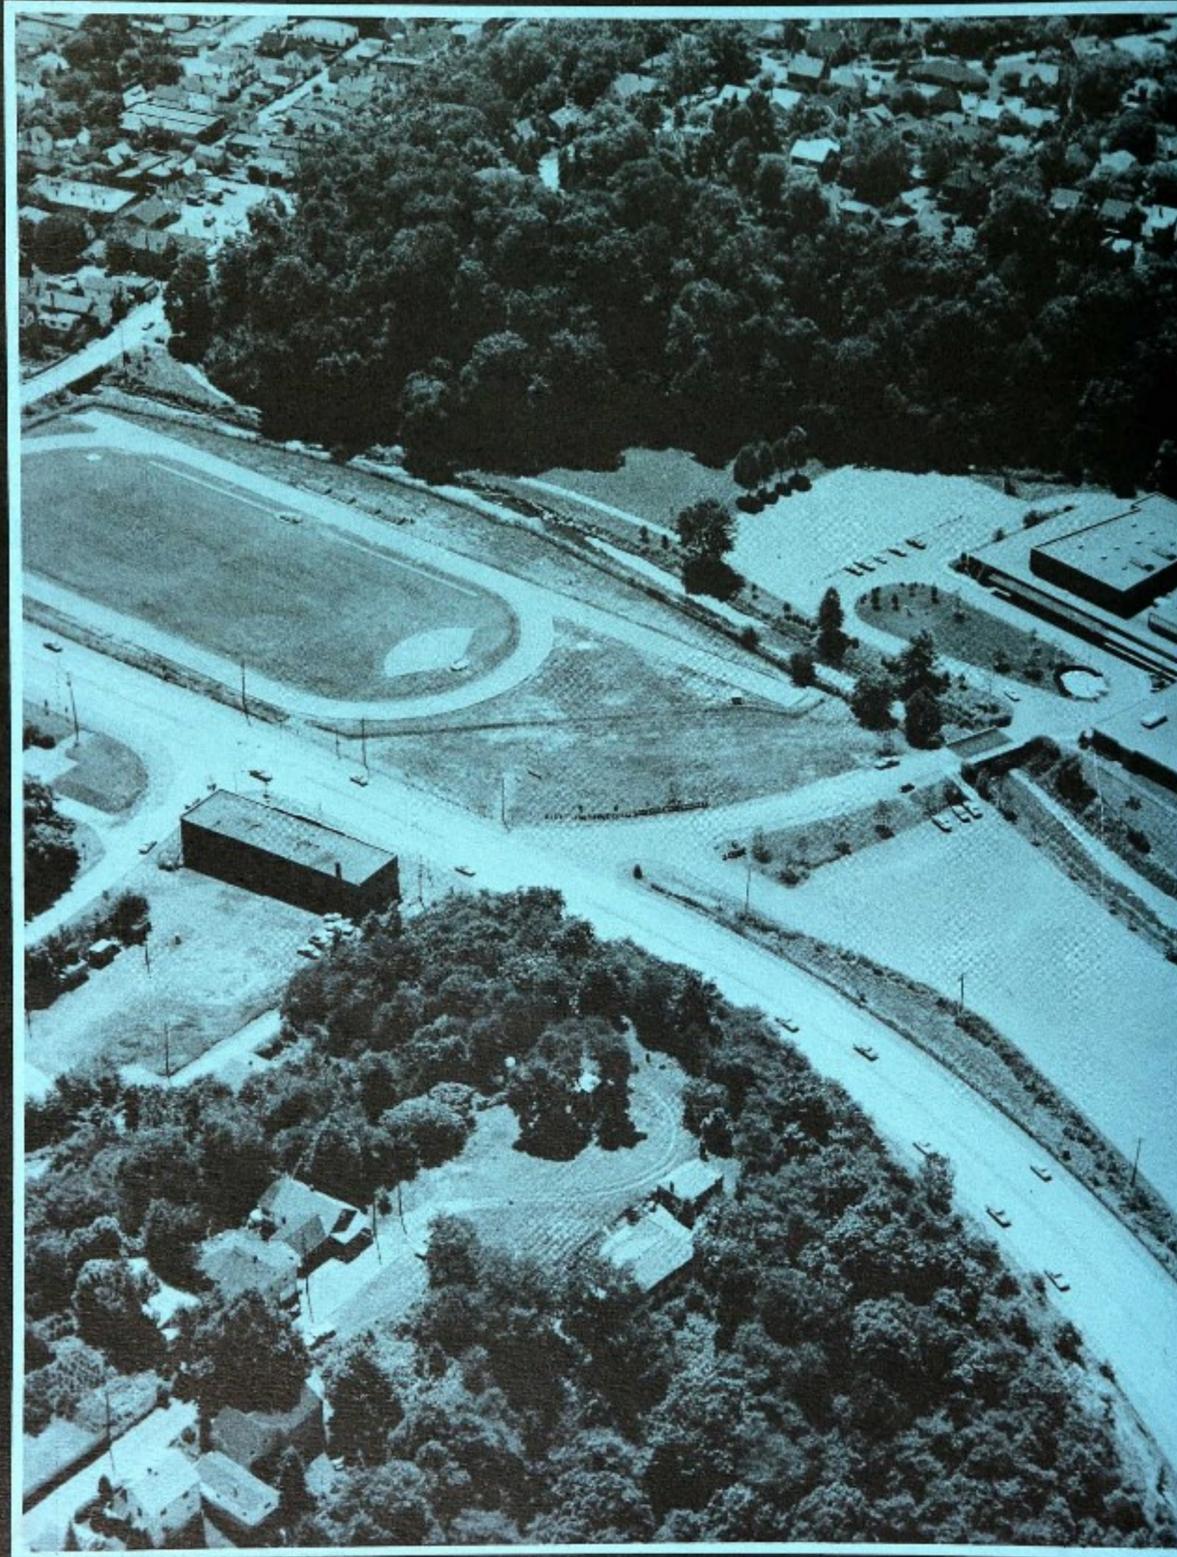

When you part from your friend, you grieve not;
For that which you love most in him may be clearer in his absence,
as the mountain to the climber is clearer from the plain.
And let there be no purpose in friendship save the deepening of the spirit.
For love that seeks aught but the disclosure of its own mystery is not love but a net cast forth: and only the unprofitable is caught.

Kahlil Gibran

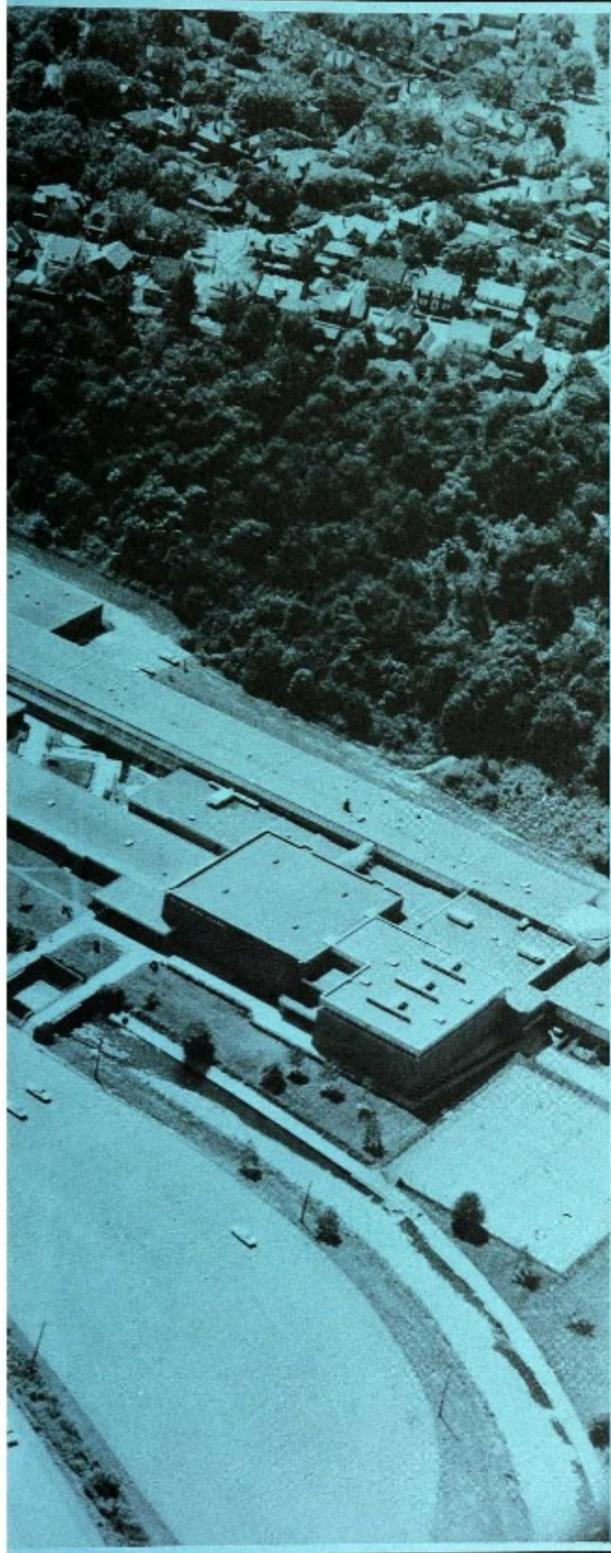

To attain his goal man must perceive that
. . . . he is a child dependent upon his mother
. . . . a father responsible for his family
. . . . a youth lost in love
. . . . an ancient wrestling against his past
. . . . a worshipper in his temple
. . . . a criminal in his prison
. . . . a scholar amidst his parchments
. . . . an ignorant soul
. . . . stumbling between the darkness of his night
. . . . and the obscurity of his day
. . . . a man suffering between the flowers of her faith
. . . . and the thistles of her loneliness
. . . . a poor man trapped between his bitterness
. . . . and his submission a rich man
. . . . between his greed and his conscience
. . . . a poet between the mist of his twilight
. . . . and the rays of his dawn
. . . . He who can experience
. . . . see
. . . . and understand these things
can reach perfection
. . . . and become a shadow
. . . . of God's Shadow.

KHLIL GIBRAN

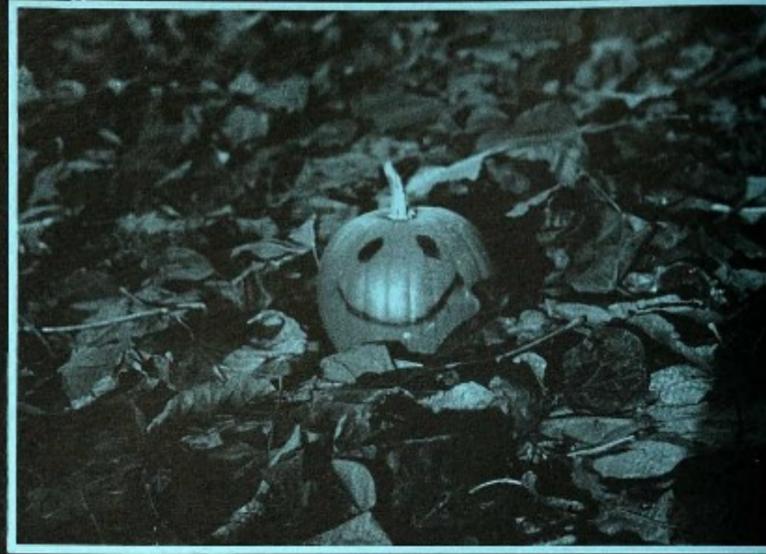

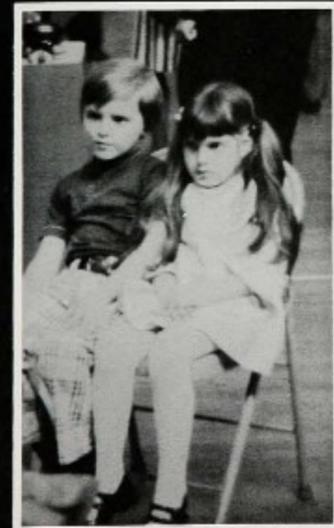

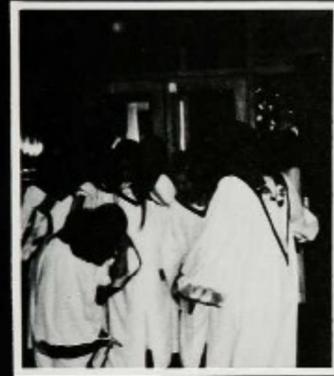

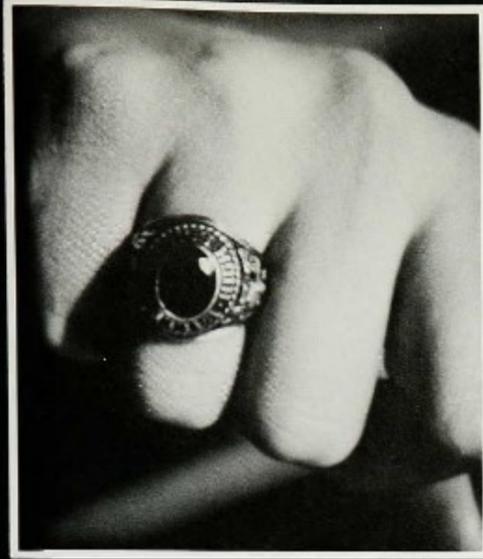

Valley News Dispatch

A man's ingress into the world is naked and bare,
His progress through the world is trouble and care,
And lastly, his egress out of the world is nobody knows where.
If we do well here, we shall do well there:
I can tell you no more if I preach a year.

Dreams

Hold fast to dreams
For if dreams die
Life is a broken-winged bird
that cannot fly.

Hold fast to dreams
For when dreams go
Life is a barren field
Frozen with snow.

too blue

I got those sad old weary blues.
I don't know where to turn.
I don't know where to go.
Nobody cares about you
When you sink low.

What shall I do?
What shall I say?
Shall I take a gun and
Put myself away?

I wonder if one bullet would do?
Hard as my head is,
It would probably take two.

But I ain't got
Neither bullet nor gun—
And I'm too blue
To look for one.

Sometimes I get lonesome for a storm. A fullblown storm where everything changes. The sky goes through four days in an hour, the trees wail, little animals skitter in the mud and everything gets dark and goes completely wild. But it's really god—playing music in his favorite cathedral in heaven—shattering stained glass—playing a gigantic organ—thundering on the keys—perfect harmony—perfect joy.

The Senior National Honor Society, and honor club as the name implies, has had a strong influence on the life of Valley High. The local chapter, No. 328, was founded in 1925 and is one of 3,210 in the United States today.

To become a member of our organization one must possess the four qualities around which the club is built: Character—which is based on personality, honesty, reliability, promptness, achievement, and morality; Scholarship—achievement of a B average or better; Leadership—initiative in promoting activities, ability to hold school offices, committee chairmanships, and other positions of responsibility in class and club projects; Service—willingness to promote the best interest of a class, a club, or the school and maintenance of a loyal school attitude.

The Faculty Council elects students into membership on the basis of the above mentioned qualifications, and the fulfillment of the required Minimum of Four Major Subjects Per Semester. The chapter makes an annual award to the outstanding senior boy and girl at commencement.

Student Council

Members of the Student Council are chosen from each homeroom to represent the students in school projects. They democratically serve the student body and inform them on activities. Members must have a "C" Average. The primary goal of the Student Council is to unify all student organizations of the school under one governmental body and establish understanding between faculty and students.

Mr. Wilczek's self portrait

Because here we are, waiting on the eve of destruction with all odds against any of us living to see the sun rise one day soon.

You, Dear Reader—

You are Amazine Grace.

You are a Precious Jewel

Only you and I can help the sun rise each coming morning. If we don't, it may drench itself out in sorrow.

You—special, miraculous, unrepeatable, fragile, fearful, tender, lost, sparkling ruby emerald jewel, rainbow splendor person. It's up to you.

Would it embarrass you very much if I were to tell you . . . that I love you?

Lord Buckley—the beautiful moonman comedian—said to a cocktail audience, “M’Lords and M’Ladies . . . Beloveds!!! Would it embarrass you very much if I were to tell you . . . that I love you? And they all laughed. How could anyone believe it?”

How do you spell Valley

I have had playmates, I have had companions,

All, all are gone, the old familiar faces.

Mr. Jones and Miss Nulph for their invaluable help and support.

All those members of the faculty and administration for the part they played in the production of this yearbook.

The other members of the staff for their devoted work for without it we wouldn't have a yearbook.
