Mari Jo,

I always thought that you were going the part of Bloody Mary in the play. But I was surprise you didn't. Next year in Music Man you better bring some "Root Beer!" before the show. I want to get really dumb for when I sing if I get the part "Ya Got Trouble!"
Love Pete

Mani Jo!
It has been really nice drawing you.
I really had fun at your party. I think you're really nice. I hope

Learning
 Learning is the core of Life's fruit
 The fertile seed that grew its roots Embedding deep inside the human brain
 Knowledge of the earth, the soil and rain.

People grow like wild weeds
The brain, a fruit on which life feeds
The head, a garden of twisted vines Ignorance, a disease of wilted minds.

Knowledge is a journey we strive to achieve Understanding of love we try to conceive Life is a path on which we descend
The earth is our mother on which we depend.

LIBRARY & READING

Our world is like a kaleidoscope, constantly changing. Each year different from the one before.

We too are kaleidoscopes. Our fashion, hair and lifestyles are changing. Ideals and beliefs change as we meet new people and our knowledge increases.

We should be glad that we are kaleidoscopes. For who would want to be the same forever, unchanging?

Well mari go, its the end of the year again
I have been a good year. don't you agree,
When I say "It's been a good year"
I don't mean that the way you would when you talk about wine I mean it was a fun year. Remember messiah how did we all stam ~~it~~?
I don't know. but we made it.
Glad you were in a couple of my classes this year. And I hope you're in more of my classes next year. A good fun loud person is always great to have around. so stay fun loud and rowdy and I'll see you next year. Bye your

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

The Journalism class has been responsible for publishing the school newspaper, Norsemen, and the newsletter this year. It has also had a part in the planning of the yearbook, Valhalla. Instructed by Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Flint the class learned various forms of newswriting and planned layouts for both the newspaper and yearbook.

Students who were not in the Journalism class but who were interested in working on the yearbook contributed their time after school.

Mary Jo
 I remember

SPIRIT WEEK

Having a good time seemed to be the most important objective during this year's Fifth Annual Spirit Week, February 24-28.

The Student Council Association which sponsors Spirit Week decided that the event would be appreciated more if it were held between Christmas and Easter vacations.

Teacher Appreciation day opened the week. The faculty was honored with an Italian dinner. Tuesday, movie stars, or reasonable facsimiles inhabited the school. Wednesday, students were given the privilege of teaching classes. A faculty auction highlighted Thursday's activities. Rounding out the week was Fifties Day, when students dressed like the teeny-boppers in the Fifties. The week ended with a sock hop.

Marijo,

what can I say? Spanish was fun (when I was there).
You're a great friend and I'll never forget you.
As a whole 8th grader don't turn me on too much (don't let too many friends read this) but with you it was different you seemed older. Remember Pappys and the beer? You and a few others are OK. Have a marvelous summer. I hope to see you.

Luv,

Francine

PS - Thank for everything good luck at Cochransville next year

Marijo,

Alot it seem like yesterday that we walked into school for the first time this year. And being scared because there was no one in ~~the~~ your homeroom well, it does to me. Our S.S. class was a riot.

It couldn't have been any better. And Mess!
He's unreal. I hope
I can be in more of your classes next year. ~~Maybe~~ maybe Algebra, English, etc.

But I've had a great time being in your A.S. and art class. Be sure to call me over the summer and we could go swimming or bike riding or something well, my stomach is grawking like hell!

Your friend,

Bacon strips, (cute, I

Marijo, (got that one from Jemmine)

Don't you feel a change a coming,
From another side of time,
Breaking down the walls of silence.
Lifting shadows from your mind
Placing back the missing mirrors
That before you couldn't find.
Filling mysteries of emptiness That yesterday left behind
And we all know it's better.
Yesterday has past
Now let's all start living
For the one that's going to last.

- Cat Stevens

Many
 I have been a nice year ever

 things we would do and remember the things Fowler and Hooker. Remember then we would we would do Hooker. Remember then we would get mad when we saw him with "her". I hope your summer will be a good one.
 but watch the fouds.
 hope to see you next year.
 Love Susan
